

CARRIZAL BATTLE WILL NOT LEAD TO WAR-WILSON

AMERICAN BLOOD IS SHED IN CLASH WITH A CARRANZA FORCE

American Commander Held Responsible For The Bloody Fight By Mexican Government

Washington, June 22---No reason for a change in policy toward Mexico is seen by the Washington government in Mexican accounts of the clash at Carrizal yesterday between American and Carranza troops. Until a complete report comes from General Pershing there will be no decision, but President Wilson is said to view the fight as an incident for which subordinate commanders probably were responsible and not as an act likely to precipitate general hostilities.

An official communication from the Mexican foreign office announcing the fight and the capture of 17 Americans and seeking an explanation of the presence of United States soldiers in that part of Mexico far from their base, was presented to Secretary Lansing today by Elizeo Arredondo, the Mexican Ambassador designate. It said an interpreter employed as a guide by the American force declared that the American commander was responsible for the encounter.

From the tone as well as the contents of this communication, officials drew the impression that Carranza desired to disclaim responsibility for the affair and to make it plain that no attempts had been made to carry out his threat to undertake expulsion of the American expedition by force of arms.

Further information regarding the activities for peace of foreign diplomats at Mexico City reached the state department during the day. From the same sources it was learned that Carranza was exerting every effort to avoid a break with the United States and at the same time to restrain belligerent demands of his own advisers.

War department officials believe that if seventeen American soldiers actually are in the hands of the Mexicans, they will be surrendered at the first opportunity. A demand for their immediate release would be one of the first steps taken by the United States government. So far the government has no official information of its own whatever regarding the Carrizal fight.

Callers who saw the president today got the impression that he is determined that, if, despite all efforts to prevent it, war with Mexico should come, the action of the United States would be prompt and on a scale of considerable magnitude.

ARABIAN REBELS TAKE TURK TOWNS

London, June 22.—Reports have been received here that a serious uprising against the Turks is in progress in Arabia and the rebels have captured the Holy City of Mecca. The London newspapers declare the rebellion is certain to have an important bearing upon the war.

The young lady across the way... find some way of removing the nicotine.

A Reuter dispatch says the rebels in addition to taking Mecca have captured Jiddah, the chief seaport of Arabia, and Taif, 65 miles southeast of Mecca, and have proclaimed independence of the Arabs from Ottoman rule. At Jiddah 45 officers, 1,400 men and six guns were captured. Medina, 218 miles northwest of Mecca, which contains the tomb of Mohammed, is closely besieged and all communication to Mecca is in the hands of the grand sheriif.

RUSSIANS TAKE TOWN

Petrograd, June 22.—(Via London)—The war office today announced the capture of the town of Radantz, in Bukovina, thirty miles south of Czernowitz.

INTERVENTION RESOLUTION READ IN SENATE

Washington, June 22---Discussion of the Mexican situation was precipitated in the senate today by Senator Works, of California, who called up his resolution to authorize intervention, had it read and gave notice that unless the foreign relations committee acted soon he would move to take the matter out of its hands.

WOODMANSEE WITHDRAWS FROM G. O. P. SENATORIAL RACE; CONVENTION CLOSES

ENEMY IS CLOSE TO U. S. LINES

Field Headquarters, June 21.—(Via Radio to Columbus, N. M., June 22.—Carranza troops have been reported close to the southern end of the American lines. General Pershing is maintaining strong outposts in every direction and taking every precaution to prevent trouble arising. The American troops, after three months of campaigning, are in magnificent form and ready for any sort of work.

RUSSIAN ATTACKS REPULSED

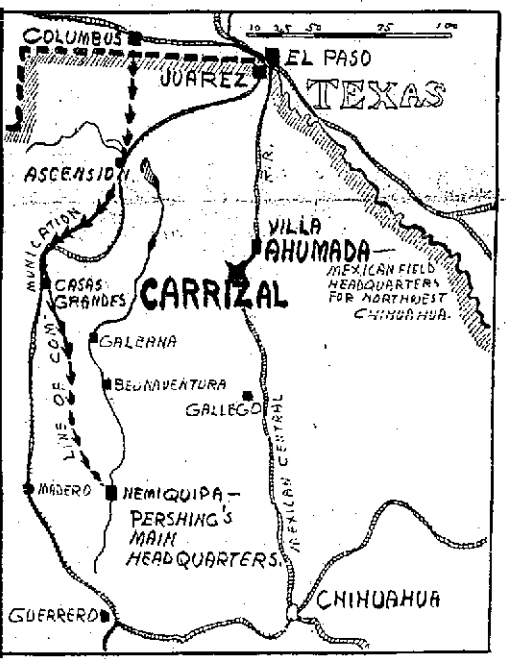

Berlin, June 22.—(Via London)—The repulse of heavy attacks by the Russians against General Count Von Bothmer's forces south of Przewoloka was announced today by the war office.

ELKS TO WEAR FLAGS IN LAPELS

Columbus, O., June 22.—Members of the Columbus Lodge of Elks will all wear flag emblems in their coat lapels during the war crisis. Exalted Ruler John G. Price has appointed a committee to arrange for the emblem. The local lodge will also communicate with other lodges in the state in an attempt to make the custom state-wide.

Hamilton, O., June 22.—Two men were killed outright and four others seriously, if not fatally, injured when an automobile in which the six were riding ran into a moving Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton freight train at Schnecks' Station, two miles south of here early this morning. The dead are: John A. Stafford and Edward Dowling. The injured: Herbert E. Bender, Charles Rathgens, Everett Reynolds and Carl Aurenlien. All live in or near this city.

WHERE THE BATTLE WAS FOUGHT

On the above map, Carrizal, the scene of one of the deadliest battles of the Mexican trouble is distinctly shown. It is only about 90 miles south of El Paso, less than the distance between Portsmouth and Columbus. In ordering the United States to withdraw its troops from Mexico, General Carranza drew a deadline just below Namiquipa, below which American soldiers could not go without danger of war with Mexico. The dotted line shows the route of the troops south, and Carranza insists that the soldiers return by the same route forthwith.

Columbus, O., June 22.—Withdrawal of Judge D. D. Woodmansee, of Cincinnati, as a senatorial nomination candidate, was the only unexpected occurrence marking the convention of Ohio Republicans which ended this afternoon at 1:11 o'clock after a platform was adopted, two presidential electors-at-large chosen, and addresses by Governor Frank B. Willis and the four senatorial aspirants heard.

Enthusiasm in response to flashes of eloquence from these speakers explained the closing session of the convention.

In the addresses were references to "Meddlesome officiousness" on the part of President Wilson and assertions that "when the Democratic party wins, the country always loses."

The platform prepared by the resolutions committee, virtually a reiteration of the principles in the national platform adopted at the Chicago national convention, was accepted by the convention as the basis for the party's state campaign after an attempt was made by Mayor Harry L. Davis, of Cleveland, and the Cuyahoga county delegation to have a minority plank substituted for the city taxation provision recommended by the platform builders.

PERSHING AMERICANS HAS LITTLE WORSTED INFORMATION IN BATTLE, IS CLAIMED

San Antonio, Texas, June 22.—General Pershing reported to General Funston today that he had not yet received a report on the fight at Carrizal, but added that on the information sent to him he had sent out two squadrons of the eleventh cavalry with instructions to get into touch with the troops of the Tenth that was engaged yesterday by the Mexican forces.

General Funston made it plain that General Pershing's first report has not altered the general situation and that no special orders would be issued until General Pershing has rendered a report in detail of the Carrizal fight and incidents that led to it.

General Pershing said that all his men had positive orders not to do anything calculated to precipitate a fight with troops of the de facto government. Although unstated in General Pershing's report, officers at department headquarters drew the inference that Captain Charles T. Boyd, was in command of troops, the troops believed to have been the one engaged at Carrizal.

The Mexicans claim that while fourteen of their number were killed, and thirty wounded, the Americans suffered an even dozen killed and lost seventeen as prisoners. In addition, they say the Americans had an unknown number of wounded which they carried off with them.

They point out also that while the Carranza commander, General (Continued On Page Eight)

WOULD GIVE THE PRESIDENT POWER TO DRAFT MILITIAMEN

Washington, D. C., June 22.—A resolution authorizing the president to draft national guardsmen willing to take the federal oath into the regular army, under the terms of the new army bill, was submitted by Secretary Baker to Chairman Hay, of the house military committee. Mr. Hay said he would call it up tomorrow and press for immediate action.

TROOPER KILLED

Naco, Ariz., June 22.—One American soldier was killed and three others injured here early today when William Humphrey, a half breed Mexican, employed as a guard at the water works, opened fire upon members of Company E, Fourteenth United States Infantry as the guard was being changed.

GREECE ACCEPTS DEMANDS OF ALLIES

Athens, Greece, June 22.—(Via London)—Greece has accepted unconditionally the demands made by the entente powers.

The new cabinet will be made up on non-political lines even including one or two adherents of former Premier Venizelos.

Late last night the sound of a heavy explosion drew a crowd to the home of M. Venizelos, owing to the groundless fear that an attempt on his own life had been made. The ultimatum of the entente powers was delivered to the Greek government at noon Wednesday.

London, June 22.—The acceptance by Greece of all the demands of the entente powers is reported by Reuters' Athens correspondent. He cables that M. Zaimis, to whom the formation of a new cabinet is said to have been entrusted went to the French legation during a conference there of the entente powers.

Hough Asked For Strength Of Ohio National Guardsmen

Columbus, June 22---Adjutant General Benson W. Hough was asked this afternoon by war department officials for information concerning the strength, equipment and preparedness for service of the Ohio national guardsmen who are awaiting orders from Mr. Hough to proceed from their home stations to the state mobilization camp near this city.

According to army officers, the inference is the Washington officials are anticipating the necessity of immediately rushing half trained militiamen from this and other states to the Mexican border because of the increased gravity of the situation there.

ROBINSON IS LEADING OVER LILLY

Wheeling, W. Va., June 22.—The majority of Judge Ira E. Robinson, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor at the recent primary election was brought up to 451 over Attorney General A. A. Lilly late last night with the completion of the recount of votes in seven counties. Returns now give Robinson 59,983 and Lilly 59,542.

Virginia, Minnesota, June 22.—One man was killed and two wounded in a fight here today between special police and I. W. W. strikers, who were on their way to picket the Alpena Mine of the Oliver Iron Mining Company. More than fifty shots were fired, some of them by a woman, armed with a repeating rifle.

NEW DIRIGIBLE BALLOON

W. P. Newkirk, yardmaster of the Baltimore and Ohio railway, has invented a new model dirigible balloon which gives promise to accomplish much in the management of aerial machines of this type. The working model was placed in Virgil Fowler's window, Chillicothe street, Wednesday afternoon but was later removed for the big gas bag was punctured in some unaccountable manner. The machine is a light framework in which a long cigar shaped silk bag rests. On each end of the framework are parallel wings similar to those used in controlling aeroplanes. There are side and middle propellers and one beneath which makes it possible for the machine to rise quickly from the ground when a flight is contemplated. Mr. Newkirk designed his balloon with a view of making the big dirigibles more easily handled and more stable while in the air. The inventor recently patented a "Blue Flag De-railer" which is to be manufactured by the Newkirk Blue Flag Safety Appliance Co., St. Louis, Mo.

NEW BOSTON

Ira Fenner, Park avenue liveryman, announced Thursday that he was going to retire from the livery business. He has been in the livery business on Park avenue since his stable on Gallia street was destroyed by fire several years ago. Tom Brown, farmer, of Madison township, is the new owner of the barn and lot, which has a frontage of 60 feet and is 120 feet deep. Fenner received a 43 acre farm in Madison township in the trade and then traded the farm for a lot on Twelfth street, near Offshore street, in the city. Mr. Brown will continue the livery business.

Fenner Peyton is suffering with a slight illness.

George Bahner had sold his Gallia street property, near Park avenue, to H. A. Bierley, real estate dealer. The property consists of three forty-foot lots fronting on Gallia street. Mr. Bierley has possession of the corner lot and the one adjoining on the west. Mr. Bahner will not give up the lot on which his lumber office is located until December.

Schmidt-Watkins, the contracting plumbers, will complete their work of installing sanitary toilet systems and drinking fountains in the two village school buildings, Friday.

Mrs. William Jenkins and two children, of Gallia street, are spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Boston, of Scioto.

Dr. W. G. Cheney, who is attending the State Republican convention in Columbus, will return Friday morning.

Mrs. Robert Reynolds, of East Rhodes avenue, had the main artery in her right wrist severed Wednesday by the sharp edge of a tin can. Dr. W. D. Micklethwait, from the city, attended her. Edward Zeek, Jr., gave first aid by tying a strong cord around her wrist to stop the flow of blood.

S. Monroe & Sons, contractors, moved their steam shovel to Highland addition, formerly the Burke Lawson tract, Wednesday. Work of grading and leveling was started in earnest Thursday. Flood and Simpson are owners of the tract.

A gang of laborers employed by the steel company are completing the work of laying three railroad tracks across West avenue. The concrete for the large addition to the west end of the present plant is completed and brick columns are being erected for steel supports. A large amount of structural steel is already on the ground for the new department of the steel plant.

Pete Roush, contracting painter, of the city, has been awarded the contract for painting the interior of the auditorium. Work will be started Monday.

The two two-story frame dwellings George and Frank Craig, of near Harrisonville, are having erected on West Grace street, are nearing completion. Edgar Burkhardt, plumber, of Sciotoville, has completed the plumbing and gas fitting work. Kelley Bros. resumed work of laying sidewalks on both sides of Rhodes avenue, in Peckles addition, Thursday.

OLDSMOBILE SALES

E. L. Anderson, local agent for the Oldsmobile, Thursday announced the sale of touring cars to George Matthews and P. H. Harsha.

No Lights, Auto In Accident

J. D. Westwood, a "jitney bus" operator of 1402 Eleventh street, complained to city officials that the failure to place danger lights on hand and other material piled up in front of a house on Sixth street above Lincoln Wednesday night caused him to run through it and against a tree, smashing the bumper of his car. The police will investigate.

To Initiate 3 Members

Members of Court Narcissus, Independent Order of Foresters Auxiliary met Wednesday evening in semi-monthly session. A social was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

The memorial committee, Mrs. Joe Parker, Mrs. Ella Yeager and Miss Roxie Brunton, reported all arrangements made for the lodge's part in the joint memorial to be held Sunday. Three candidates will be initiated at the next meeting.

Vagrants Arrested

Fred Repass was the name given by a man Officer Goodman caught riding the "blind baggage" of N. & W. passenger train No. 3 early Wednesday morning. Another stranger claiming to be Louis Neely, of Cincinnati, was arrested for vagrancy. They were later released with orders to leave the city.

Board Of Trade Endorses Depot Plan; Give Reasons

At a joint meeting of committees from the Business Men's Association and the Board of Trade, held Thursday morning, the following resolution endorsing the action taken by city council, Wednesday night relative to approving the plan to locate the new Norfolk and Western depot on the east side of Chillicothe street, was passed:

"Resolved, that this joint committee, consisting of three members of the Board of Trade and three members of the Business Men's Association, endorse the plan of the Board of Trade, to locate the new Norfolk and Western depot on the east side of Chillicothe street, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Portsmouth Times, to the city council, and that a copy be spread on the books of the above-mentioned organizations. Further that we give to the press eight reasons that the location of the new N. & W. station east of Chillicothe street is for the best interest of the citizens of Portsmouth."

Eight Reasons Why the New N. & W. Passenger Stations Should Be Built According To Plan "B."

No. 1.—The most important reason, from the city standpoint, is that Plan "B" changes street car and other crossing from a grade to an overhead crossing. In Plan "A" the grade crossing on Seventeenth street would be over at least five tracks.

No. 2.—Access to station by building according to Plan "B" would be easier and more satisfactory to the public than Plan "A." They would have less crossing approaches from any billion residences, no grade crossings approaches from any direction. The street cars do not run.

No. 3.—Under Plan "B" all facilities, that is, passengers, mail baggage and express, would be in the same building, with easy access to the public, and more convenient to all concerned than Plan "A," where it is necessary to erect two separate buildings.

No. 4.—Trackage arrangement under Plan "B" is more satisfactory than in Plan "A," which will enable the railroad company to give better service in handling the passenger business.

No. 5.—Under Plan "B" a more satisfactory arrangement of approaches to station and station grounds will be so laid out and beautified as to be more in keeping with the character of structure that they contemplate building.

No. 6.—Under Plan "B" an underpass crossing is provided at Sixteenth street, which will care for all traffic east of the railroad and south of Robinson avenue. The cost of building this underpass crossing will be paid by the railroad company.

No. 7.—In compliance with the public utilities commission orders, cars cannot be coupled on curves. Plan "B" provides such length of track for future growth of city, so that the railroad company can comply with public utilities commission regarding coupling cars. Plan "A" cannot provide for any improvements or growth of the city.

No. 8.—All other locations considered by the Norfolk & Western block more streets and would not give the facilities that Plan "B" would provide.

The Masons of Scioto county will meet at Bigelow M. E. church, Sunday morning, to observe St. John's day. A sermon appropriate to the day will be delivered by the pastor, Charles E. Chandler, D. D.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty years ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "poison" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which is poisonous." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician's consent of what it is composed. G. O. P. PLATFORM ENDORSES THE WILLIS ADMINISTRATION

Columbus, O., June 22.—The platform adopted by the Republican State Convention today follows in part:

"We, the Republican party of Ohio, in convention assembled, hereby promulgate the following platform:

"We unqualifiedly endorse and pledge our support to the Republican national platform and the national candidates of the party, Charles E. Hughes and Charles W. Fairbanks.

"The Republicans of Ohio note with just pride the influence which Senator Warren G. Harding, elected by them two years ago to the senate of the United States, has already achieved in that body and the eminence he has attained in the national councils of our party.

"We unqualifiedly endorse the administration of Governor Frank H. Willis and each of the other elective Republican state officials and pledge our support to their re-election.

"Notwithstanding the many obstructions that petty partisan politics placed in the way, these officials have saved the state of Ohio thousands upon thousands of dollars. The administration of state affairs has been placed upon a business basis; useless jobs have been abolished; extravagant salaries reduced; a full day's work has been demanded and received from public employees; neither the banking department nor any branch of the public service has been used either to punish enemies or reward friends. Gigantic personal political machines have been overthrown and self government has been restored.

Legislature Redeemed

Platform Pledges

"The Republican legislature redeemed the platform pledges of 1914. Among the more important enactments, attention is called to the following:

"The Parrott-Whittemore tax law; the Cass Highway law; the Lloyd loan shark law; the Winland's rate suspension law; specific and limited appropriations of the public revenue making impossible juggling; a law giving common pleas courts authority to determine the sufficiency of initiative and referendum petitions; the Smith-Mallow agricultural law, abolishing the high salaried agricultural commission.

"More legislation was passed for the preservation of the public health than during any preceding session of the legislature. When the Republican administration took charge of the highway department it was confronted with a deficit of over $273,000. The preceding administration designated many hundreds of miles of public roads as inter-county and main market roads and then reduced the levy from five-tenths of a mill to three-tenths of a mill, thus making impossible the carrying out of the improvements. At the present time there is under contract and in course of construction, 790.04 miles of road. Notwithstanding the increased work, the department is being run at a saving of more than $50,000 a year in office maintenance and personal service as compared with the preceding Democratic administration. When the present Republican administration came into power it found that hundreds of inmates of state institutions were sleeping in hallways and in attics; that inmates were compelled to wear summer clothes in winter because there were no funds left to buy them needed warm clothing; neither was there sufficient money used to provide proper food.

State Institutions Are Bettered

"The Republican legislature made ample provision for betterments of our state institutions which should not have been neglected.

"Recognizing the debt which the state and nation owe to the few remaining veterans of the civil war, the Republican legislature made the certificate of service and honorable discharge sufficient evidence of merit and fitness under the civil service law of the state. The Republican party has ever been mindful of those who have served our country in time of war, and we pledge the same grateful and loyal devotion to all those who may now or hereafter be called to the colors, and to care for their mothers, widows and orphans.

"We favor the enactment with proper safeguards of such legislation as will permit voting by all citizens of Ohio who are necessarily absent at election time through the call of either business or duty.

"The Republican party is unalterably opposed to impairing the protection afforded the people by the one per cent tax limitation law. However, recognizing the pressing financial needs of municipalities, we favor authorizing the electors of each municipality to decide for the measures whether they will assume a greater rate of taxation for the purpose of caring for the interest and sinking fund charges for existing municipal indebtedness, such authority being in keeping with the party's position as to local home rule.

"We pledge our support to any legislation tending to bring about industrial peace and contentment and a better feeling between employer and employee. We pledge our representatives to the enactment into law of such recommendations and of a law insuring the laborer the equivalent of one day's rest in seven.

Favor Short Legislative Session

"The people and business in general need a legislative rest. We favor the shortest possible session of the legislature, sufficient only to enact absolutely necessary legislation.

"We pledge the Republican administration to a continuation and extension of the practice of every economy consistent with efficiency; to the abolishment wherever practicable of offices and employments; to the strict enforcement of all laws; to a careful stewardship of public funds and public property; to the continuation of the upbuilding and keeping in repair of our roads by the most approved methods; to the protection of the workmen's compensation law, and the strengthening of it for the benefit of the workmen wherever and whenever possible; to the betterment of labor conditions, and to co-operation in any movement for human welfare."

ATTORNEY GENERAL GIVES OPINION ON FINANCIAL AFFAIRS OF COUNTY

In an opinion received Thursday from Attorney General Edward C. Turner concerning a series of nine questions pertaining to the financial affairs of Scioto county, the opinions of Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait were confirmed in detail. County officials have been eagerly waiting for this report since the two members of the state auditing department made a thorough examination of the books, several weeks ago.

The questions were relative to vouchers issued for work performed on the highways by the former board of commissioners being paid; to the transfer of funds upon application to the common pleas court; to the correction of illegal transfer of funds; to the failure of the county auditor to charge back on semi-annual settlements causing a shortage in the election fund; to the commissioners borrowing money to repay an indebtedness due to the feeble minded institution; to commissioners borrowing money to pay $9,000 due on a loan which was negotiated to cover overdrafts in the building and county road funds; to the legality of contracts made when the county auditor certified that there was money in a fund when there was in reality a deficit; to the legality of a bond issue to meet outstanding indebtedness caused under "Flood Emergency act."

In the first question, the attorney general holds that the section authorizing the transfer of funds from the undivided general tax fund to a depleted or overdraft fund is repealed by implication.

"I am of the opinion, therefore, in answer to your first question that the effect of the provisions of Section 5649-3rd G. C. is to prevent the expenditure, during any semi-annual period, from any county fund, of money 'advanced' to said fund during said period from the undivided tax funds by the county auditor and treasurer under the direction of the county commissioners in the exercise of the authority vested in said officials by the above provisions of Section 2571 G. C.

In other words, the practical effect, generally speaking, of the provisions of said Section 5649-3rd G. C. is to render the provisions of said Section 2571 G. C. inoperative."

Concerning the transfer of funds upon application to the court of common pleas, the attorney general holds: "I am of the opinion that said money, as found, at the beginning of the fiscal half year, in the fund to which the same has been transferred, is available for appropriation in said fund by the board or officers having control of the same, and when appropriated, may be expended during said semi-annual period for the purpose for which said fund is established."

Illegal transfers of funds should be corrected, according to the opinions, which says: "I am of the opinion, that, where as a result of such attempted transfer, the books of the county auditor have been changed in conformity with such action, the commissioners of such county should by proper resolution correct their records and the books of the county auditor should be immediately corrected so as to show the true status of each of the several funds of the county even though as a result of such correction one or more of said funds to which said board of county commissioners has illegally attempted to transfer money will show an overdraft."

May the election fund be credited with the amount which the county auditor failed to charge back on the semi-annual settlement of the portion of the primary and election expenses due from the subdivisions of the county, as an immediate correction of the error, or must the money be borrowed to carry expenses incurred until the correction is made in the August settlement, is the substance of the fourth question, to which the attorney general holds: "It is assumed, of course, in advising that the county officials may act under the authority of said section 2571 Supra, that the auditor and the treasurer in estimating the amount of money in the county treasury to the credit of the undivided general tax funds and belonging to the several political subdivisions in question, will find sufficient money in the county treasury to the credit of the said undivided general tax funds which, under the limitation prescribed by the latter part of the said section, may be transferred to said county election fund for the aforesaid purpose."

It is held that the county commissioners can borrow money sufficient to cover the indebtedness caused an overdraft in the fund for the feeble-minded institution. On March 10, 1913, the commissioners authorized and negotiated a loan of $20,000 to pay indebtedness due to the foregoing institution. The money was credited to the county fund, according to the opinion, and expended for general uses. The loan was afterward repaid from the county fund. "The present board of county commissioners may borrow money for this purpose under the authority and in compliance with the requirements of said section 5656 et seq. G. C."

Concerning the vouchers held by persons having performed work on the county highways under the direction of the former board of commissioners, the attorney general holds that they "constitute a moral obligation and might be paid out of the road repair fund if there were sufficient money to the credit of fund and available for purpose."

"I am compelled to hold that the claims therein referred to are not legal obligations of the county for the payment of which the county commissioners may borrow money under authority of section 5656 et seq. G. C." The commissioners are not allowed, in other words, to borrow money to pay these vouchers but can pay them if the money is available in the road repair fund.

Money borrowed by the former board of county commissioners to pay overdrafts in funds cannot be legally paid by bond issue, according to the attorney general.

On April 7, 1914, the commissioners authorized and negotiated a loan of $20,000 upon notes of the county to pay overdrafts existing in the building and county road funds. Of this loan, $9,000 remains unpaid.

"I am of the opinion, therefore, that the aforesaid loan was not a legal obligation of the county referred to in said inquiry and that the balance of $9,000 remaining unpaid cannot be funded by a bond issue under provision of section 5656 et seq. G. C."

"If, however, upon the presentation of said claims to the commissioners in question, and their refusal to allow the same, the jurisdiction of the court should be invoked, and upon consideration of all the facts and circumstances of the case, the court should hold the county estopped to deny the validity of said claims and should render judgment against said county for the amount of such claims, said judgment would in my opinion constitute a valid indebtedness of said county for the payment of which the county commissioners might borrow money under authority of section 5656 et seq. G. C."

Pertaining to contracts awarded when the auditor certified that the money required for improvements was in the treasury to the credit of the funds, when in reality there was none, the attorney general holds the same opinion as in the sixth question. In other words, the contractors, holding such vouchers have a valid claim against the county and could file suit thereon and recover.

The commissioners, according to the attorney general's opinion on the ninth question submitted, can legally issue bonds to pay debts incurred under the "Flood Emergency Act." In April, 1913, an emergency fund was created through the sale of $440,000 bonds. Contracts were awarded for improvements necessary under the Emergency Act and now it is found that there is required $20,000 additional. "I am of the opinion, therefore, in answer to the ninth or last question, that, upon the facts therein stated, said county commissioners may, in acting under authority and in compliance with the requirements of said flood emergency act, issue bonds for the purpose of providing sufficient money in the flood emergency fund of said county to pay the balances due according to the terms of the aforesaid contract and still outstanding."

YOUR HAIR NEEDS PARISIAN SAGE

It Quickly Removes All Dandruff and Stops Falling Hair

If your hair is full of dandruff, thin, streaky, dull, and never will do up to look pretty, do not think it must be so. Beautiful hair, thick, fluffy, lustrous and absolutely free from dandruff is only a matter of care. Hair is like a plant—it needs attention to make it grow strong and beautiful.

Parisian Sage is one of the most helpful and invigorating hair treatments known. Just one application stops itching head and removes every trace of dandruff. It goes right to the hair roots, stimulating them and furnishing the nourishment that is needed—the hair becomes soft and fluffy and appears twice as abundant.

Parisian Sage not only saves the hair and stimulates it to grow long and heavy, but gives it an incomparable gloss and beauty. Get a bottle from Fisher & Streich, or any drug or toilet counter. It's not expensive and you cannot be disappointed with this delicately perfumed and helpful tonic, for even the first application will give the hair beauty and charm.

Florist Has A Row With Wife; She Stands Pat; He Moves On

Following a row with his wife, Edward Schwartz, a florist of 1102 Thirteenth street, told the police Thursday morning that he was off for Huntington, W. Va.

Schwartz loaded up his one-horse wagon with some of his plants and "duds" but before he got under way he asked Patrolman Joe Beckett to interview his wife and sound her true feelings relative to his threats to leave her, saying she might be willing to take him back. "Why, I'll be tickled to death if he goes," was substantially her reply, according to Beckett, who transmitted her answer to Schwartz who was around a nearby corner awaiting the officer. "No use talking to her," reported Beckett to the disturbed florist. Schwartz said no more and with a sigh whipped up his horse and moved on.

The Boy Is Father to the Man

Old sayings like this are fraught with a most important meaning. And what will aid the expectant mother in conserving her health, her strength, her mental repose and the absence of venous pains is a subject of vast moment. Among the recognized helps is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend." Applied to the muscles it draws the life from the system, induces calm, restful nights of health-giving sleep and makes the days sunny and happy. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" of any druggist and you will then realize why it has been considered time to time in our best homes through three generations. It is perfectly harmless but so effective that once used it is recommended to all expectant mothers by those who went through the ordeal with surprising ease. Dr. J. C. Williams, Regulator Co., 412 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., you can have a free copy of a wonderful book that unfolds these things which all expectant mothers delight to read. Write today.

Lena Allen Leader In Contest; Scioto County C. E. Convention Holds First Meeting Tonight

It Closes Tonight At 10 P. M.

VOTE COUPON

Vote for the leading lady to be selected by the public to take part in the "Peerless Portsmouth" motion picture, for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A.

Pictures to be taken during week of June 26 and shown at the Columbia on July 14 and 15.

Place an X after the name of the girl you desire to have the leading part. Send or bring the coupon to the office of The Times or to the secretary at the Y. W. C. A.

All ballots must be cast at The Times office or at the Y. W. C. A. building by 10 o'clock on the evening of June 22.

The candidates, and their vote today follow:

Sue Bevis 3117	Scioto Roush 118
Lena Allen 4226	Alma Davis 51
Ruth Jeffords 44	Lenore Allard 30
Fannie Druggan 522	Grace Adams 25
Rose Jordan 117	Dorothy Varner 49
Neva Forrest 108	Bonnie Hick 132

Despite the fact that friends of Miss Sue Bevis gave her vote in the Y. W. C. A. moving picture contest a big boost by a veritable avalanche of coupons in the past 24 hours, friends of Miss Lena Allen were not caught asleep and by receiving an unusually heavy vote she retained the lead in the spirited contest, which closes sharply at 10 o'clock tonight. Miss Allen's vote today is 4,226 and Miss Bevis' is 3,117. All the other candidates also enjoyed a boost in coupons today and there may be the proverbial dark horse in the bunch. No more coupons will be received after 10 o'clock tonight as at this hour the contest, which has been spirited and friendly, will come to a close. All the candidates worked like heavy today and a deluge of coupons will no doubt fall during the closing hours of the contest. The canvass of the votes will be entirely in the hands of the Y. W. C. A.

For Tonsillitis and Other Inflammatory Diseases

tono-lex (Lugol's) stops the inflammation. That is all it does—just stops inflammation. When the inflammation is stopped the cause of the disease is gone and recovery is sure and speedy.

tono-lex is the truly remarkable discovery of English scientists. It is used and prescribed by the most prominent physicians in England. It is also largely used in English military hospitals in cases of pneumonia and influenza and in preventing inflammation in wounds.

It is always effective wherever there is inflammation. In Sore Throat, Croup, Coughs, Catarrhs, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Appendicitis, Acute Rheumatism and in Burns and Wounds it is invaluable. tono-lex is a simple substance to stop inflammation and reduce temperature to normal, your doctor is authorized to refund your money.

tono-lex is harmless and cannot interfere with any other treatment. Two forms—Lugol's for external use and Lugol's for internal use.

You can get tono-lex (Lugol's) at Waterbury's, who sell it under a guarantee—money back if it fails.

Actors In Rumpus

Two Massachusetts young men giving the names of Leo Amaro and Joe Sullivan were taken into custody by the police Thursday afternoon for the Greenup county, Ky., authorities.

A. C. Morefield, of the Morefield Comedy company, a tent show which got stranded at Greenup, caused the arrest of the young actors. He had sworn out a warrant for their arrest charging them with taking a brass mantle clock, walking-stick which he valued at $35, a pair of trousers and other articles from his room. He traced them to Portsmouth and he and Sheriff McArthur located the row standing in front of the Bank cafe.

The clock and walking stick were found in their possession. The walking stick in the judgment of persons at headquarters was not worth more than fifty cents at best. J. F. Potts went to the rescue of the two men as they had agreed to put on a sketch at his Arcadia theatre tonight. They claimed Morefield had engaged them through a Cincinnati agency and had never paid them anything for their services. He himself decided not to prosecute them after recovering his property and they were later released.

PIGEON, FEARING FOR NEST, ATTACKS PAINTER AT TOP OF CHURCH TOWER

While on the topmost pinnacle of the Bigelow Methodist church tower Thursday making preparations to paint the tin work, M. O. Neary, painter in the employ of the J. S. Cunningham and Sons, was attacked by a big pigeon and was scratched about the face in several places before the enraged bird was frightened away. Mr. Neary had just climbed to the ledge of the tower and was preparing to fasten the large iron hooks which hold the painter's elevator when a pigeon which was watching the operation from a neighboring roof sailed straight at Neary and attacked him. Neary made several passes at the bird before he frightened it away. When the hooks were fastened to the ledge, Mr. Neary investigated and found that the pigeon had a nest of eggs in a small hole just beneath the ledge.

WILL RUN "SUNDAY CARS" AS FAR AS FRANKLIN FCE.

The Ohio Valley Traction company will open a new extension to their line between Portsmouth and Wheelersburg Sunday morning at nine o'clock, according to an announcement made Thursday

HARMONY MAY RESULT FROM THIS CONFERENCE

New York, June 22.—Plans for harmony between the Republicans and the Progressives were expected to be the development at conferences today between Charles F. Hughes, who arrived here today from Providence, R. I., and a number of Progressive leaders. The Republican presidential candidate returned to New York not knowing that during his absence his advisers here had arranged important political appointments for him today.

His callers included Major Leonard Wood, U. S. A., whom Theodore Roosevelt considered as a compromise candidate for president; and Oscar S. Strauss, Progressive candidate for governor of New York in 1912. Republicans for whom appointments had been made included W. Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, and Franklin

Murphy, former governor of New Jersey. Colonel Roosevelt came to New York today from his Oyster Bay home and expected to confer with Progressive leaders in the afternoon. He said he had no appointment with Mr. Hughes.

It was announced that United States Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, who was chairman of the Republican National Convention will call Saturday to discuss the date and place of the convention's formal notification of the nomination.

Authoritative information was received today that Theodore Roosevelt had prepared a full statement as to his attitude toward harmony with the Republican party, which will be submitted, it was asserted, at a meeting of the Progressive national committee at Chicago Monday.

University of Cincinnati, and they also visited Mrs. Gordon Hanley while there.

INCENTIVE

It is hard to save without an INCENTIVE. Few people save unless they have something to SAVE FOR.

Is there anything better guaranteed to make you happy than to have a sum of money of your own? Do you want to get an EDUCATION? Do you want to have enough money to give your CHILD an education?

Do you want to TRAVEL?

Do you want to build a HOUSE?

Do you want to get MARRIED?

All of these things take MONEY. Are you putting something aside right along in the SAVINGS BANK so as to gratify these proper desires?

street, Portsmouth. She also leaves two other brothers, John Thatcher, of Montana, and William Thatcher, of Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thatcher and daughter, Mrs. Charles Rice, and Herbert and Mrs. James Colvin, of Portsmouth, attended the funeral.

Dr. J. W. Guthrie
Manchester, O., June 22.—Dr. J. W. Guthrie, aged 66, died Monday evening of pneumonia, complicated with other troubles. He had been failing for several months. Dr. Guthrie served in the lower house of the Ohio legislature for 8 years as a Democrat and was for many years prominent in Democratic circles in the old Tenth district. He had served on the state committee and was a delegate to most district and state conventions for the past 15 years. He was president of the Farmers' National Bank at Manchester and of the county board of education. He had accumulated considerable wealth. His wife survives. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon.

Dan M. Conway
Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Dixon, of 1131 Eighteenth street, were called to Covington, Ky., on account of the death of Mrs. Dixon's uncle, Dan M. Conway, of El Paso, Texas. He was operated on at Mayo hospital of Rochester, Minn., six weeks ago for gall stones. Funeral Thursday.

Frank Altman
Mrs. Florence Jones, of Eleventh street, left Thursday for Cincinnati, Ky., being called there by the death of her nephew, Frank Altman, aged 37, who fell a victim of typhoid fever.

Giles Gilbert Funeral
Friends in goodly number gathered Thursday afternoon to pay a final tribute to the memory of Giles Gilbert, Jr., Portsmouth's oldest resident citizen.

Rev. C. Lloyd Strecker, pastor of Trinity church, conducted the funeral services, which were held at the Gilbert home, No. 525 Sixth street. The reason friends were asked to omit flowers was because of a request of Mr. Gilbert, made some time ago, that the only thing to be placed on his casket be the same sheaf of wheat used on the casket of his late son, Harry Gilbert, twenty-five years ago. It had been sent to the family by fellow employees of Mr. Gilbert of the Big Four railway in Cincinnati.

Reach Viaduct Compromise; Street Rwy. To Pay $8,000

At a conference between the city council and representatives of the Street Railway company, and the Norfolk and Western Railway company, held Wednesday night at the city building, it was settled that the tracks of the Street Railway company will cross the newly constructed viaduct in the east end. There was a full and frank discussion of the entire subject matter, and it was believed by those present that the settlement of the question is one which will be favorable for the future development of the city.

It developed that under the law it is very doubtful whether or not the city had the right to assess the Street Railway company for any portion of the cost of the viaduct, because the law governing such proceedings applies only in cases where the tracks of the Street Railway company cross the public street at grade at the point where it has been determined to construct the improvements, and that as the tracks of the Street Railway company did not cross any railway tracks at grade at the point where the viaduct was constructed, there was no authority to assess. But the Street Railway company waived that point and agreed that it ought to pay something, and that what it ought to pay was a subject of negotiation by the parties.

It was then pointed out that there was an erroneous impression with the public to the effect that the law required a street railway company to pay one-half of the portion of cost of such improvement borne by the city, and that such was not the law, but that under its terms the city may require the Street Railway company to bear a reasonable proportion of the cost assumed by the city not exceeding one-half of the city's portion, and that, therefore, the city was not obliged by law to require the payment of anything, but if it did require the payment of something it should only require a reasonable proportion of the cost. It was urged that in the large cities of the state where the street railway companies are practically fully developed and very wealthy, the limit of one-half was sometimes assessed, but that the spirit of the law did not contemplate such a course in smaller municipalities and undeveloped street railway lines of lesser value.

The representatives of the Street Railway company stated that the cost of the original Kendall Avenue subway was estimated at $85,000.00, of which the city's share should be $40,000.00, and that it was willing to pay one-half of the city's share upon that estimate less a portion of the damage it had suffered by reason of the delay in providing any means of crossing at all, and it was pointed out that the Street Railway company had constructed a portion of its line north of Gallia street through Athletic park in anticipation of crossing at Kendall Avenue, and the delay resulting in the raising of its rails, the decay of its ties, and the loss of much of its trolley wire, and many of its poles, and that the present crossing was a far more expensive crossing to the Street Railway company than the one at Kendall Avenue. Special work will be required in Gallia street and in Eighth street which will cost at least $6,000.00, and the estimated cost of laying the tracks in the viaduct will, at least, equal that sum in addition. Moreover, the Street Railway company will be obliged to remove its tracks at Kendall Avenue and Eighth street and restore these streets to their former condition. Mr. Raymond York of the Street Railway company, estimated that the additional cost by the viaduct plan to the Street Railway company, without considering the items of damage described above, would be, at least, $7,000.00, and the figures submitted by him to the conference bore out this assertion. He, therefore, submitted that a reasonable proportion for the Street Railway company to pay would be its share of the cost of the first crossing proposed less the added expense to it on account of the viaduct, which would be $8,000.00.

The representative of the Norfolk and Western Railway company stated that in the judgment of that company it would be very unfortunate if the tracks of the Street Railway company were not laid in the viaduct as provision had been made therefore by increasing the width of the roadway between curbs from thirty feet to thirty-six feet, and that the annoyance to the public by reason of delays at grade crossings would be greatly lessened by such a course and that the danger to those using street railway lines materially reduced. It was also pointed out that this crossing would result in better service to the public and in the development of that portion of the city south of Eighth street where there was room for development.

The city solicitor and the council urged the Street Railway company to pay $15,000.00, and not take into consideration its loss or the added expense, but this the Street Railway company declined to do, and answered that it had not asked any one to bear any portion of its loss, and that it was simply a question now as to what would be a reasonable amount for it to pay for the use of the viaduct under all the circumstances; but that justice required that in determining this amount its position and condition should be given proper consideration.

After hearing the statements of the parties, the council and solicitor discussed the question for considerable time and finally arrived at the conclusion that it would be far better for the public to accept the sum of $8,000.00, and apply that amount to the retirement of bonds, rather than let the viaduct go to completion without any tracks being laid over it, for in such event the public would be deprived of this necessary extension of street railway facilities in the city and the public treasury would not have $8,000.00.

At the conclusion of the conference by the city, the representatives of the railroads were called in and Councilman Wilson stated that while the city council could not now adopt the necessary legislation for the reason that the viaduct had not been dedicated to the city by the Norfolk and Western Railway company, it was the sense of council that the Street Railway company should proceed at once to lay its tracks across the viaduct, and as soon as the city was in position to do so, it would adopt an ordinance granting a franchise to Street Railway company to operate its cars over the viaduct and relieve it from operating any cars in Kendall Avenue, or upon Eighth street, between the viaduct and Kendall Avenue, the Street Railway company to pay to the city, promptly, upon the enactment of this legislation the sum of $3,000.

Representatives of the Street Railway company stated that they would be unable to secure a delivery of rails until August so that the work necessarily will be delayed. Double tracks are to be laid. The roadway is to be 36 ft. between curbs so that it will be of a width equal to Chillicothe street. The approaches will be macadamized for the present in order to give the fills time to properly settle.

At The Arcana
"Through Flames to Love" is a two-part Imp drama of tense interest. Harry Benham, Wallace Clark, Edna Hunter and William Welsh. From the city into the lumber country as the new foreman of a lumber camp comes Jack Sturgeon, a wolf in sheep's clothes. He is disgusted with the lumber camp life until he meets Nell, who keeps house for her grandfather. Steve Rock is Nell's lover and he learns Jack is married. A sensational dynamite explosion, in which Jack is killed and from which Rock rescues Nell, closes the story. "Their Anniversary" is a clever little domestic comedy, featuring Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips. It tells of the way in which each of the married couple held back the presents waiting for the other to make first advances. A quarrel ensues, followed by a reconciliation. Good domestic comedy.

"Animated Weekly" shows the Boston running races, a New York fire, polo in California, war relief fetes and interesting scenes on the Mexican border.

At The Temple
"Excess Baggage" is the title of chapter ten of "The Red Circle." "Smiling Sam" arrives at the Travis town house concealed in a trunk. He threatens to "sneak" if June and Mary refuse to hide him. Unable to do otherwise, they conceal him in the attic.

Wishing to make Lamar believe that she is interested in his search for the red circle June calls at his office. "Smiling Sam" knows June is a member of the band of red circle crooks supposed to be extinct. Chapter ten of "Neat of the Navy" will also be shown. "Considerable Milk" is tonight's comedy.

At The Forrest
"The Darkening Trail" is a four part Mutual Masterpicture. Another famous play featuring William S. Hart under the direction of Thomas H. Ince. A play put out by the New York Motion Picture corporation which means that it is among the best in the line of moving pictures. The story is one of deep interest and one that will hold your mind on the play from the start to finish. Hart is the young man sent to the vast coldness of Alaska. He becomes the friend of a young girl and marries her. He turns out to be a bad character and runs away. His wife is taken care of by a friend and in the end Hart returns to start life anew, a better man.

At The Strand
"A Soul Enslaved" is a Broadway Universal Feature drama in five acts, based on a novel by George Bronson Howard. It features Oleo Madison, Thomas Chatterton and others. This goes deeply into sex problems, which it handles frankly, but sincerely. It shows how two people who have greatly sinned, finally find happiness together. The story is handled with strength and should not offend thoughtful people. It gets up an intense interest and maintains it successfully throughout.

MARGERY WILSON, IN NEW TRIANGLE PLAY, "THE PRIMAL LURE"

Columbia Tonight
William S. Hart in a Great Play of the Northwest
William S. Hart, admittedly America's premier interpreter of rugged frontier types, has the leading role in "The Primal Lure," Triangle-Ince production of Vingie E. Roe's celebrated novel of the same name, adapted for the screen by J. G. Hawks, of the Ince staff. It will be seen at the Columbia theatre tonight.

"The Primal Lure" is an absorbing drama of life in the great Canadian Northwest. It recites the stirring romance of Angus McConnell, a young Scotch-Canadian factor, and Lois Le Moyne, daughter of a French settler at the post. It is replete with thrilling encounters with the Blackfoot Indians, and teems with a love interest rivaled in its appeal only by the picturesque beauty of the story's background.

Hart has the role of McConnell and he has invested it, it is declared, with rare power. While the part is unlike that of "Blaze" Tracy in "Hell's Hinges" or Steve Denton in "The Arvan," it has provided the noted actor with the same opportunities for forceful characterization.

A small, though strong, cast appears in support of Hart. It includes Margery Wilson as Lois Le Moyne and Robert McKim as Richard Sylvester, the villain of the story. The production was directed by Hart under the Ince supervision.

"The Love Riot" today's Keystone comedy featuring Charlie Murray, is just as the title implies, a regular "Love Riot" from start to finish.

Burton Holmes Travel Pictures on Paramount Program, Come to the Lyric

Burton Holmes is the most famous traveler and lecturer in the world.

He was one of the first men to visit foreign climes with the motion picture camera.

With his associates he has traveled more than 2,500,000 miles.

For ten weeks in October, November and December Burton Holmes attracted capacity audiences in the following $2.00 theatres and halls:

Orchestra Hall, Chicago; the Odeon, St. Louis; Carnegie Hall, Pittsburgh; Academy of Music, Philadelphia; Alhambra's Lyceum, Baltimore; Candler theatre, New York; Palast theatre, Milwaukee.

In January and February he appeared at Carnegie Hall, New York; Symphony Hall, Boston; Academy of Music, Brooklyn; new National theatre, Washington.

These travels in film are now to be released exclusively through Paramount exchanges. Burton Holmes himself will personally direct the preparation of these releases.

Nothing comparable ever before offered the motion picture public.

Exhibitors may now present to their patrons these celebrated travels which heretofore have not been available to them because of the great demand upon Mr. Holmes' time.

This series will appeal especially to teachers and educators, parents and pupils, while everyone will wish to take these travels on the screen. They will be shown in ten minute reels one each week on Friday at the Lyric as an added attraction.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Exhibit Tonight

The story that never grows old is being shown as the chief attraction at the Exhibit theatre today.

AMERICANS WORSTED

eral Felix Gomez, lost his life, the American leader also was killed.

Uncertainty regarding the safety of the commander of the American troops was believed today to have been dispated by a report through Columbus, N. M., that he was Captain Lewis Smorey, of the Tenth Cavalry.

Following the receipt of news of the Carrizal encounter, the Juarez garrison, just across the river from El Paso, last night began evacuation of the town. More than half of the garrison got out during the early morning and at noon most of the remainder were loaded on trains ready to depart.

Evacuation of Juarez was deemed advisable because a battery of 3.7 gun capable of throwing a 60 pound explosive six miles, pointed their noses threateningly over El Paso today in the direction of the Mexican city.

One of the engagements was brought here today by a Mexican civilian who was in Villa Ahumada early yesterday afternoon and who said he assisted in dressing some of the Mexican wounded. He said that General Felix Gomez, the slain Carrizal leader, had been aware of the approach of the Americans for twelve hours and had sent a number of couriers to them warning them to return to their encampment.

When they persisted in their advance, he said, a pitfall several hundred feet in length was dug directly in the trail over which the cavalrymen must ride. This was cleverly concealed with brush. As the Americans came through the sand dunes toward the entrenchments, General Gomez lay concealed.

ed some hundred yards away in the mesquite. The horses of the American vanguard plunged into the pitfall unseating their riders and injuring a number of them.

Then, the Mexican asserted, the Carranza forces lying in ambush, raked the American ranks with a machine gun. The heavy fire forced the Americans to withdraw to reorganize their line and the Mexicans captured seventeen soldiers who had been thrown into the pit.

He asserted that it was then that General Gomez went forward under a flag of truce, and that before the proposed parley had begun an irresponsible soldier again started the machine gun fire.

A small detachment of cavalrymen charged toward General Gomez and his party, who were in the center of a field directly between the two commands, their pistol fire killing the Mexican leader.

Piræus, the second largest city of Greece, is five miles southwest of Athens. It is 200 miles below Saloniki, the base of the allied forces in Greece.

RERUBRICAN CONVENTION

June 22.—Few of the delegates were in their seats at 10 o'clock this morning, the time set yesterday for the opening of today's session of the Republican state convention. At 10:20 the delegates began arriving in large numbers and indications were that the convention would be called to order about 10:30.

At 10:27 Chairman Cole rapped for order. He was loudly cheered. Rev. George L. Davis, negro, of Columbus, invoked a divine blessing.

Reports of the committees on credentials and permanent organization were adopted by the convention. By the adoption of the letter, the temporary organization was made permanent and, as permanent chairman, Mr. Cole continued in charge of the convention.

The report of the committee on rules and order was read and adopted. The report of the resolutions committee was called for and S. G.

McClure, chairman of the committee, began reading the platform drafted last night.

Mention of the names of "Hughes", "Fairbanks", "Harding" and "Willis" brought rounds of applause.

Following the reading of the platform, Mayor Harry L. Davis, of Cleveland, presented a minority report offering a substitute for the city taxation plank. After Mayor Davis' motion for the adoption of the minority plank failed, he was given the floor to talk for the adoption of his plank.

During the three minutes he occupied the floor, Mr. Davis was repeatedly interrupted by cat calls. Mild applause marked the conclusion of Mr. Davis' address.

A roll call was asked for and the adoption of the minority report was put to a vote by Chairman Cole.

The vote was taken by counties, the first taken during the convention.

The motion to adopt the substitute plank was defeated.

General J. Warren Keifer presented a resolution to ratify the 29 names recommended by the district delegations as presidential electors. The resolution was adopted.

Denman and Jones Are Chosen

U. G. Denman, of Toledo, former attorney general, and Edwin Jones, of Jackson, chairman of the Republican state executive committee were nominated by the convention as presidential electors at large.

James N. Linton, of Columbus, introduced a motion to authorize the State Central Committee to fill any vacancies occurring on the state ticket after nominations have been made.

A demand for "Willis" expressed in cheers and applause the most marked demonstration of today's session, brought the governor to the front of the platform.

Says Roosevelt Will Support Hughes

Governor Willis announced to the convention that Theodore Roosevelt had declared he would support the candidacy of Charles E. Hughes, for president. This precipitated thundering applause.

The speaker emphatically refuted statements to the effect that he has shown favoritism in the selection of units of the Ohio National Guard, included in last Sunday's mobilization order. He quoted from a morning newspaper a story in which it was claimed the complete guard was not in readiness to move to the border because of failure to net on the part of the governor.

The governor declared "The entire guard will be called before we get through with it," referring to the Mexican crisis.

Willis' Remarks Are Cheered

His assertion that a policy of middle-class officialness, on the part of the national government, the ammunition now being used against our boys on Mexican deserts was furnished Mexican bandits by us, and that this fact "is a national shame" brought prolonged cheers.

Governor Willis concluded at 12 o'clock with the prediction that Charles E. Hughes would "carry Ohio by 100,000 votes." He was compelled to arise and bow recognition of the continued applause accorded his address.

Chairman Cole announced "12 or 15 minutes" would be given each of the senatorial candidates in attendance at the convention. He said they would be called in alphabetical order.

Mr. Daugherty Makes Address

Mr. Daugherty said "a Democratic senator from Ohio" had taken exception to a slogan of "bread, butter and business," saying business in America is already prosperous.

"Business is prosperous in spots," declared the speaker, "but bread, butter and blood" might more fittingly be designated the national slogan of the Democratic party.

When he finished, Mr. Daugherty was given prolonged applause. Banners bearing the words, "Do it for Daugherty," and "fighting Harry Daugherty deserves it" were carried down the aisles, but no one fell in line back of the banner carriers.

Charles Dick Also Speaks

Chairman Cole then presented Charles Dick as "the field marshal of Hanna and McKinley." As Mr. Dick took the platform, Mr. Cole slapped him on the back and said, "Mr. Dick of the United States of America."

Mr. Dick charged the Democratic party with plagiarism in claiming credit for the federal banking system saying it was essentially "line for line" legislation of Republican origin.

"In the Democratic party platform, they neglected to make mention of the demand made of Thieria to salute the American flag," he said, and declared "they talk in vague and meaningless phrase of 'foreign relations'."

"If printed alongside each other the Democratic platform of 1916 would look like a repudiation of their platform of 1912," the speaker continued.

M. T. Herriek Has Something To Say

When Mr. Cole presented Colonel Myron T. Herriek, an orator lasting fully a minute, in which yells and hat tossing figured, was given. Mr. Herriek said all Ohio was proud of Governor Willis at the Chicago convention.

"I heard one of the most delightful ladies of the land who was at the convention, say, 'I like that boy—he's honest and from a good state,'" said the former governor. The remark brought laughter and cheers. The speaker's declarations that "in recognition of his merit, we made Warren G. Harding a United States senator," and "we were all proud the chairman of the Chicago convention was from Ohio," also occasioned cheers.

Mr. Herriek finished at 12:55, and Chairman Cole presented Judge Woodmansee, of Cincinnati.

Woodmansee Not To Run

Thanking his friends for their tenders of support, Mr. Woodmansee announced his name would not appear on the ballot this fall as a senatorial candidate. He pledged his support to whatever candidate Ohio Republicans select in their primary election.

In his address Mr. Woodmansee said, "Hughes and Fairbanks are already elected," and "the same man who put us out of the running four years ago, can, with the same strength, assure certain victory in the coming election," and followed with a plea for Americanism in the event of a national crisis.

The convention adjourned sine die at 1:11 p. m.

ON PERSHING'S REPORT HINGES DECISION OF PEACE OR WAR

Washington, June 22.—General Pershing's interpretation of the fight between Carranza troops and American cavalry near Carrizal, Mexico yesterday, expected momentarily today, probably will determine largely whether the incident will precipitate immediate war.

If his report declares the American soldiers were attacked in an apparent attempt to enforce General Carranza's demand that the U. S. troop movements be north toward the border it is considered probable the clash will be accepted by President Wilson as an act of war.

Reports from Mexican sources telling of the clash but not disclosing American casualties were accepted by officials as fairly authentic, but although none believes that the American made the first attack. The report created a spirit of greater tension than has existed over Mexican relations for many months. Many influential officials admitted privately they believed their attack was "the last straw" on the load of indignities suffered by this nation from Mexican disorders.

Pending receipt of General Funston's report, President Wilson considered the situation seriously. He was anxious to receive from Mexico City some indication of Carranza's attitude toward the American note sent Tuesday. If the fight represents the answer to the note there is little doubt that President Wilson will recommend that congress declare war against Mexico.

The incident yesterday renewed efforts of the war department to prepare the national guard for immediate service at the border. It was said some units already mobilized might be ordered to entrain not later than tomorrow.

Today's Beauty Hint

It is not necessary to shampoo quite so frequently if your hair is properly cleansed each time by use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers may be prepared very cheaply by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox, obtained from your druggist, in a cup of hot water. This rubbed into the scalp creates a thick lather, soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to scalp and hair. After rinsing the scalp is fresh and clean, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.

TEUTON U-BOAT REACHES SPAIN

Madrid, (Via Paris)—June 22.—A German submarine arrived today at Cartagena. The officers disembarked and left for Madrid with a confidential letter for King Alfonso. The section of the press which favors the German side in the war publishes articles to-day eulogizing the German sailors for their naval exploits. The submarine came from Pola, the Austrian naval base.

Madrid, (Via Paris)—June 22.—The arrival of the German submarine U-36 at Cartagena was officially confirmed. The submarine is anchored alongside the Spanish cruiser Cataluna. The secretary of the German embassy at Madrid has left for Cartagena to receive an autograph letter from the German emperor to King Alfonso supposed to be thanks for a reception given to German from Kamerun.

Children Will Be Guests

As has been the custom for several years, the inmates of the Scioto County Children's Home will be the guests of the Masons at their annual picnic which is to be held at Millbrook park Saturday afternoon and evening. Frank M. Baggs, who has been appointed to make arrangements for the transportation and care of the children by the Past Masters' association of Scioto county, stated Thursday that the management of the baseball park had agreed to allow the children to attend the game between Portsmouth and Charleston free.

COUNCIL APPROVES DEPOT PLAN; MOTORIZES THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

MANY STREETS ARE TO BE IMPROVED

City Council at its meeting Wednesday night formally approved Plan B, providing for the location of the proposed new N. & W. passenger depot on the east side of Chillicothe street, voted to proceed with the paving of a dozen streets, appropriated $28,100 for the motorization of the fire department, called for an ordinance requiring street cars to stop on the near side of street intersections and ordered the service department to require the street railway company to place the streets through which its line passes in proper repair.

Tells About Depot Conferences

Floor Leader Wilson reviewed the meetings held between city officials and representatives of the N. & W. railway and spoke of the two plans considered for a depot site, Plan A locating the station on the west side of Chillicothe street. He said from what he had observed and from discussions he had had with others, he believed that Plan B was the best and most advisable for all parties considered. He said that in so believing he recognized the fact that it meant additional expenditure of money for the city. In order that the N. & W. might know where it stood and to enable it to proceed, he offered the motion adopting Plan B and it carried unanimously.

Rules were suspended and an ordinance passed to proceed with and authorizing contract let for the paving of Massie street from Front to Second street.

Prepare For More Paving

Upon the recommendation of Chairman Rickey, of the street committee, legislation was also ordered prepared for the following street improvements upon which estimates were submitted: Kendall avenue from Gallia street to the B. & O. tracks, city's share $1,045.45, property owners' share, $2,577.05; Tenth street from Court street to Findlay street, city's share, $2,773, property owners' $12,627; Jefferson street from Third to Fifth street, city's share, $2,057.09, property owners' $3,072.41; Fourth street from Jefferson to first alley west of Market street, city's share, $801.55, property owners' $2,712.70; Court street from Ninth to Tenth street, city's share $94.02, property owners' $2,106.98; Popular street from Gallia street north 475 feet, city's share $956.81, property owners' $4,163.53; Grant street from first alley east of Center to Spring street, city's share $214.82, property owners' $976.18; Bannan Place, from Dewey avenue to Offshore street, city's share $198.40, property owners' $1,971.60; Dewey avenue from Seventeenth to Bannan Place, city's share $198.40, property owners' $1,971.60; Dexter avenue from Campbell street west 386 feet, city's share $210.85, property owners' $2,456.65; Vinton avenue from Center street to Spring avenue, city's share $242.83, property owners' $1,339.30; Spring avenue from Vinton to Grant, city's share, $446.10, property owners' $2,461.90. Estimates were also presented for the paving of Beech street, from Gallia to B. & O. tracks, city's share $629.14, property owners' $1,876.10, and Plum street from Walnut to Gallia street, city's share $49.50 and property owners' $1,175.22, which two were not included in the committee's recommendations.

Acting upon a petition from lower Fourth street property owners, Messrs. Roush and Wilson urged that the improvement of that street be continued westward from Jefferson to Madison and Madison street from Fourth to Third street, and a motion carried to revise the Fourth street estimate accordingly by the next meeting.

Oscar Coburn was privileged to address council and he, after reviewing the efforts to get that street paved for the past five years urged that it not be allowed to lag and instead be paved this year. He personally had kept the partment could have same done and charged against the company. Director Calvert reported that his department and the street railway were jointly repairing upper Gallia street from Monroe to Young street. He said heretofore it had been customary for the company to repair one street each year. Mr. Rickey amended his motion to refer the matter to the service department and it carried.

A petition from property owners of upper Lincoln street, alleging excess street assessment, was referred to the law and claims committee.

A verbal petition presented by Mr. Johnson for the paving of the alley between Sinton and Waller streets, north of Fourth street, was referred to the street committee.

Auditor's Report

Auditor Zucker reported a net balance in the city treasury of $101,539.58. He also reported the refusal by the sinking fund trustees, school districts and state industrial commission of the $104,500 street assessment bonds and the $2,000 Hilltop sanitary sewer bonds.

A communication from the state board of health telling of the conditional approval by that body of the Hill Top sanitary sewer system plans, was ordered placed on file.

Ordinances were passed $35.50 additional for the Schuler sanitary sewer at Third and Madison streets and $8.95 for the Taylor sanitary sewer at Ninth and Chillicothe streets.

Wanted In Cincinnati

Paul Copas was arrested at the home of relatives in Earlstown by Roma Walker, and a detail of patrolmen Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock, and held for the Cincinnati authorities. He will be taken back to that city to answer to a non-support charge.

Garbage Men Want Increase In Wages

Director Ralph Calvert, of the public service department, has not yet decided what action he will take relative to a petition referred to him at a recent council meeting asking an increase in pay of garbage men from 2.75 to $3.25 per day. The petition was signed by all of the eleven garbage men. They cited the high cost of feed and horse-shoeing as one reason for asking an increase in their allowance. They are required to furnish their own horses and wagons. Mr. Calvert said he would probably take up the matter with the council finance committee.

Everyday Wisdom

Ties ought to be classified as jewelry. They are not clothes. We could go around without ties and be just as warm and just as modest and just as discreet as we are with them. There would not be any more bronchitis or pneumonia if there were no ties. A tie hasn't any practical purpose.

When a man put the tie on his neck, the first woman who put the first tie on the first man's neck had to hit him on the head with a rock. As she lay prostrate and unconscious and powerless on the ground, she put her knee on his chest and tied a piece of ribbon around his neck, and when he awoke she sent him off to Sunday school.

Ties are the by-product of everything in the world. They are made out of the scraps of everything. When a davenport manufacturer has a remnant of tapestry left over, with birds and tree branches smeared all over it, he starts a race for tapestry ties. Ties are made out of remnants of rugs, petticoats, cotton-linens, wall paper, shirts and window curtains. Ties are the hash of the textile industry.

Some men have become very fond of ties, and have as many as 1,500 hooked over the mirror of their chamber.

Jacobus In Rare Form; Framfort Blanked In Last Game

Local Pitcher Yielded But Two Blows Yesterday; Charleston Here Today

ACKED by faultless support that at times bordered on the sensational Big Larry Jacobus yesterday afternoon as a bone-chilling wind swept across Millbrook blanked the Framfort Old Taylors, 4 to 0. The sum total of the visitors' hitting amounted to a double secured by Jones in the second inning and a perfect bunt by Kimble. That was all the swatting the visitors indulged in so small wonder that kalamine was splashed in their eyes.

Mixing them up in big league style and now and then inserting a wicked spitter Jacobus toyed with the visitors, who never had a look in the Champs making it four in a row. The game was featured by the hitting of Bauer, who rammed two triples to right and McHenry and the fine fielding of Demoe and Bush.

FIRST INNING
At the beginning Kimble popped to Bush. Humes was a dead bird, Jacobus to Spencer. Lindholm popped to Spencer.

Bush lofted to Kimble. Bauer tripled to right. Dills beat a bunt to third. Bauer scored. McHenry planted a double in right. Dillhoefer flied to Hargrave. Humes had half passed ball, but Dills was caught trying to score. Humes to Jacobus.

SECOND INNING
Kelley out, Spencer unassisted. Jones doubled to right. McKittick hit into double play, Bauer to Spencer, a great play.

Spencer soared to McKittick. Demoe was easy for Bacon and Kelley. Fisher perished some way.

THIRD INNING
Holmes lofted to McHenry. Hargrave flied to Fisher. Bacon was a Bauer-Spencer victim.

Jacobus flied to Kimble and Bush to Hargrave. Bauer struck out.

FOURTH INNING
Kimble beat a bunt. McKittick sacrificed, Dills to Spencer. Lindholm fouled to Dilly. Kelley flied to Fisher. Dills was thrown out by McKittick. McKittick flied to left. Dilly soared to Jones.

FIFTH INNING
Jones asked to Dills. McKittick loomed to center. Bush threw out Holmes. Spencer singled over short and went out stealing. Demoe singled to short. Fisher hit into double play, Bacon to Jones to Kelley.

SIXTH INNING
Hargrave succumbed. Demoe to first. Bacon was loosed, Bauer to Spencer. Kimble's smash was straight at Spencer.

Jacobus ambled. Bush sacrificed. Kelley to Jones. Bauer walked. Dills singled to short. McKittick singled scoring Jacobus and Bauer. Dills was caught trying for third. Kimble to McKittick. Dillhoefer was hit. Spencer died, Bacon to first.

SEVENTH INNING
Humes flied to McHenry. Lindholm popped to Spencer. Kelley popped to Bauer.

Demos flied to Lindholm. Fisher doubled to left and took third on Kelley's error. Jacobus whiffed. Bush flied to right.

JUST GOSSIP

The Lexington Colts also won yesterday as the Champs did not increase

BURLEY CUBS WIN TWO GAMES

Huntington, June 22. — Mayville's Burley Cubs took the final double header of the series yesterday afternoon at League park by scores of eight to nine in eleven innings and seven to one. The first game was tucked away by our boys until Gaffin weakened and his defense crumbled before the heavy attack of the invading Kentuckians. After tying the score in the eighth the contest went eleven innings. Muec McGraw, the hardest hitting pitcher in the league, was sent to the bat for Hoffman in the ninth round, but gained nothing more than a walk. In the eleventh fly, Huntington was unable to score in her half. French and Shepherd pitched the winners and Gaffin and Kug were the losing pitchers.

FIRST GAME
Mayville 2 0 0 1 0 0 3 2 0 1—5
Huntington 8 0 0 1 0 2 0 0 0 0—8

SECOND GAME

Bacon Not Unbeatable
Bacon pitched a good game, but his peevishness over not getting all the breaks soon got on the nerves of his teammates and their defense cracked in the sixth and eighth innings. Bacon is a good pitcher, but he is far from being unbeatable. Yes, many, many miles, dear fans.

their lead. The Champs have 16 more games to play during the first half.

Charleston is the Millbrook attraction today at 3 p. m. This is Dillhoefer and Grocers Day.

Bauer hammered out two triples yesterday and played fine ball around Bag No. 3.

The Old Taylors said goodbye to Portsmouth this morning and departed on the 8:00 A. and O. for Mayville.

Joe Bush is in his first hitting slump of the season. Joe, at that, is hitting .328 so he should worry.

Umpire Jacobs again went through a game without having a kick registered against his umpiring.

The Charleston Senators play the last Sunday game of the first half in Millbrook Sunday. Don't miss it.

Charleston Here Today

The Charleston Senators will open a four game series in the yard this afternoon. These games will be for "blood" as the Charlestonians will try to improve their position in the race by triumphing the almost unbeatable Champs. Friday will be Ladies' Day and the Saturday and Sunday games will commence at 2:30.

Larry's Day To Shine

Larry Jacobus pitched one of the best games of his career yesterday. Only 28 men faced him and one of these laid down a sacrifice. The Old Taylors succumbed in order in every inning except the fourth when Kimble beat a bunt and Henges sacrificed. Jones got a hit in the second inning but was doubled at third when Bauer stopped McKittick's roller, touched Jones and then chucked the ball to first ahead of McKittick.

Jacobus had fine speed, a swell spitter and he certainly moved down the Kentuckians, who never had a look in.

NO LADIES IN BALL PARK

For the first time probably since Portsmouth edged its way into the Ohio State league not a single lady witnessed Wednesday's Portsmouth-Framfort game. It was entirely too cool for the feminine sex, who will seek a more favorable day to watch the athletes perform.

Nutter Stars

Everett Nutter, who held an outfield post with the Charleston team in the Ohio State league last season, is playing the outfield for the New Haven, Conn., team in the Eastern Association. Nutter has written his friend, Stewart Dills, of the local team, that he is "setting things alive." He is hitting .287 and already this season has cracked out eight triples and seven doubles. Nutter was in the Ohio State league for several seasons.

Demoe Made Great Stop

Demoe played another nifty game at short. He threw out Manager Holmes a grounder right over second in the eighth inning. "You can't beat a team going like that," Holmes mumbled on his way back to the dug out.

Kentuckians Were Helpless

One had to see the article of ball Jacobus hurled yesterday to really appreciate his cleverly pitched game. He was never in the hole and the Old Taylors were helpless at the bat. Larry's sweeping curve was worked overtime and with deadly effect.

BAUER HAD BIG DAY

Third Baseman Bauer stopped in to the clubhouse rays of the lime-light yesterday. He landed two triples to the right field fence, made several flashy stops and scored three runs. A pretty fair day's work, thank you.

Dilly Hit On The Hand

For a few moments fate played tag on the spino of the Champs as it looked like Dillhoefer was badly hurt in the sixth when a pitched ball struck the back of his right hand. Dilly shook it off and ran down to first as if nothing happened. The three in the bleachers applauded.

Colts Win Last Game

Lexington won the last game from Charleston in Senatorial Wednesday, the score being 6 to 5.

Joins Team On Friday

Outfielder Singleton, who is also said to be a splendid catcher will join the Champs Friday. He has been a teammate of Robert Test at West Virginia Wesleyan. Three Ohio State league teams bid for Singleton's services.

Yankees Tie For First Place
By winning from the fast All Star team, which has held down first place since the beginning of the season, the Yankees tied them up. The game was featured by long drives from the bats of Dever, Schuh and Batus.

Schuh was hit hard in the opening innings of the game and allowed the Yankees to accrue a large lead. Batus, who then took up the pitching, pitched fairly good ball. Milhoff, the Yankee twirler, pitched the best game ever witnessed in the Peerless League, holding the All Stars hitless for seven innings. In the last two innings he weakened and allowed several hits, coupled with three errors on the part of his team-mates, which netted the All Stars seven runs.

Eagles Still Winning
The Eagles continued their upward flight for the top Wednesday afternoon, when they defeated the Cardinals by the score of 9 to 5. Hamilton was never in danger and pitched a swell game of ball. The Eagle battery soon got next to Pitcher Whison's "out curve" and knocked it all winners of the lot and one went as far as the river.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

Planning For A Big Time At The Masonic Picnic Saturday

Under the generalship of Frank W. Sheridan and Will Zottman, the "Boneheads" and the "Ivory Knobs" are assembling for a mighty contest at Millbrook park Saturday afternoon, when Aurora Lodge No. 48 F. & A. M., Lucasville Lodge No. 485 and Western Sun Lodge No. 91, Wheelersburg, will hold their annual picnic. Both sides are claiming a victory and both have between fifteen and twenty-five candidates for their "armies."

Then, too, the "Masonic Sons" are preparing to give the "Masonic Dads" a terrific drubbing in a fast seven inning round. Last year the "Sons" were hribe but they went to the diamond and just walloped the ball all over the grounds and scored so many runs that the "Dads" gave up in disgust and swore vengeance for this year. But the "Sons" know their fathers and are preparing to spike their guns.

Not only will those Masons, their friends, their families and their sweethearts witness the two great baseball games, which will be staged in the afternoon, but they will be able to attend a game between the Portsmouth and Charleston teams.

Frank Sheridan and "Bill" Zottman are planning to pull some of the old fashioned stuff. This will be one of the surprises that will bring a laugh from the most confirmed grog. It is a question about his "Umps." John Jones has been catering to the job for several days, claiming his rights by reason of his "fair judgment and unquestioned decisions of last year."

The Past Masters' association of Scioto county, acting as a committee of the whole have the arrangements for the picnic in charge. They have issued a general invitation to every Mason, his family and sweetheart, regardless whether a member of the lodge of Scioto county to attend. It is to be a Masonic affair for the families and friends of all Masons.

A checking room will be maintained at the Casino this year, same as last, where those attending may check their baskets, lemons and coffee, cream and sugar will also be furnished to all upon request.

The committee is planning to have several unique contests for the boys; to be staged in the afternoon. Among the contests will be the annual peanut race, which proves to be so exciting and interesting. Then this year there will be a pie eating contest. This will be one of the laughable affairs. Those real soft, juicy pies will be obtained and cut in sections then the pieces placed at certain distances apart along a long counter. The contestants hands will be tied behind their backs and at the word the contest will start. The lad completing his piece first will be given a substantial prize.

It is expected that fully one-thousand will attend from the country precincts alone.

Then on Sunday morning Aurora Lodge No. 48 F. & A. M. will observe "St. John's Day" by attending services at the Bigelow Methodist church. Rev. C. E. Chandler will deliver a special sermon and a special musical program will be arranged. All Masons in the city and county are invited to attend these services.

Junior League Opening

This Junior League will open their third season on Friday afternoon at York park. The following games are scheduled for the opener: Centrals vs. Evangelicals; batteries, Haug and Haug; Lindenmeyer and Multer. Second game: Grays vs. Reds. First game will be called at 1 p. m.

Bigelow Troop Notes

The troop met last night for the purpose of instructing candidates for the Tenderfoot degree. On this evening the "degree team" will meet for a short coaching under the direction of Scoutmaster Griffin. On Friday night the new candidates will be initiated with appropriate ceremonies. The following boys will learn the mysteries of scoutcraft: William Pursell, Thomas Cole, Thomas Ogier, Cliff Yeager and William Kelley. The troop sent eleven delegates to the Lucasville conference.

Joint Troop Meeting

Troops 2 and 12 will meet in joint session Friday evening at 7 o'clock at Trinity church in charge of Scoutmasters Williams and Cuffey. A swell program has been arranged. Let every member of these two troops be out.

Great Games Saturday

The Boy Scout league managers held a very enthusiastic meeting last night at Boys' Headquarters. The chief business transacted was the extension of the league season, which will now close August 26 instead of August 5. Three swell games are scheduled for the coming Saturday when the Tigers cross bats with the leading Athletics, and the Kendall Avenues will play the East Enders in a double header. Batteries for the first game: Fortner and Smith; Moon and Elmer. Second game: Lewis and Hudson; Moore and Paxson.

Troop Picnic Today

Troops 1 and 3 are holding their annual picnic today at Millbrook. The ball teams of these two troops will clash in a fast game this morning, and after dinner all kinds of athletic stunts will be pulled off.

Ten Leading Sluggers

The ten best sluggers in the Boy Scout league this week are as follows: Buggs, 500; Haisel, 473; Gehres, 458; Moon, 417; R. Hopkins, 404; Blake, 400; Fortner, 400; C. Cook, 384; M. Smith, 380; Lettie, 357.

Many New Members

The following new members were reported at Scout Headquarters this week: Donald Russell, David McCarthy, Donald Stephens, Fred Pride, Jr., Earl Reeg, Donald Jordan, Elton Scott, Frank Morgan, Clifton Yeager, William Pursell, Phillip Phillips, Thomas Ogier, Thomas Cole, William Kelly, Robert Evans and Nelson Turner.

Atty. Nicholas Klein Married At Cincinnati

The Enquirer today said: "Attorney Nicholas Klein stole a march on his friends last night when he was married to Miss Eva Classon, pretty daughter of Moses Classon, insurance man, 2500 Ingleside avenue. Attorney Klein and his bride outwitted everyone by slipping over to the court house at a late hour, where license Deputy Jacob Falk issued the necessary papers, after which they went to the home of Rabbi Deutseh, who made them one. The happy couple started last night upon a honeymoon to Washington, New York and other cities, where the groom will combine business with his wedding trip."

ATTENTION, G. A. R.

Bailey Post will hold regular meeting at G. A. R. Hall, June 23, at 7:30 p. m. All members who are able are urged to attend.

Cards on Sunday

Pepps, the artist, was greatly scandalized when he first saw cards played on a Sunday. "I did find the queen, the Duchess of York and another at cards, with the room full of ladies and great men, which I was amazed to see on a Sunday, having not believed, but contrary to all belief, the same a little while since."

Dr. Edwards' STRENGTH TONIC

This Tonic which Dr. Edwards recommends is designed to restore strength to the weak, strength to the muscles, strength to the mind and strength to the nerves.

It is given to restore to the blood that rich red color which every weak and run-down person must have before he can get well and strong.

That Natural Ruddy Color

Of good health is absent in cases of thin, weak and run-down patients. Their cheeks, lips and eyelids lack that normal blood tint; and the feeling of well-being is not with them. Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic restores the color to the blood, drives away that sickly greenish pallor of the complexion and supplies fuel for the vital fire in weak and thin people.

Nervous Patients

Dr. Edwards says patients are nervous because they do not have enough rich, red blood to feed the nerves. So he made this Tonic to give the blood just what it needs for that purpose.

Sugar Coated Tablets

Dr. Edwards has his Tonic put in a sugar coated tablet so it will be pleasant to take and will not injure the teeth. Pale, thin, weak and run-down people contract diseases more frequently than well ones. They are liable to have Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bright's Disease, Nervous Dyspepsia, Insanity, Fevers and Consumption.

Don't Have These

Why not put yourself in shape not to have these diseases by letting Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic help you out of your nervous and run-down condition? It will build you up right from the start by increasing your appetite, toning up the nervous system, enriching the blood and increasing your vital force. For sale by your druggist.

To Put On Flesh And Increase Weight

Most people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky folks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It's all a matter of what this is the nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all.

Most thin people stay thin because their powers of assimilation are defective. They absorb just enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffing won't help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stay there" pound. All the fat producing elements of their food just stay there in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste. What such people need is something that will prepare these fatty food elements so that their blood can absorb them and deposit them all about the body—something too, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power.

For such a condition it is well to recommend eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is not, as some believe, a patented drug, but is simply a careful combination of six of the most effective and powerful assimilative and flesh building elements known to chemistry. It is absolutely harmless, yet has been wonderfully effective and a single tablet eaten with each meal often, according to reports of users, has the effect of increasing the weight of a thin man or woman from three to five pounds a week. Sargol is sold by Fisher and Streich pharmacy and other good druggists everywhere on a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back.

WILL BOOST KARNIVAL

The task of thoroughly advertising the 1916 Kora Karnival, which already promises to surpass all other attempts in this line will be admirably cared for.

This became known Thursday when E. C. Hood, chairman of the advertising committee, announced his assistants as follows: Isadore Goodman, Orin B. Oakes, R. H. Charlton, Henry Winter, Frank W. Sheridan, George Wurster, St. Straus and William Thomas.

The committee will hold its first meeting next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in the Business Men's Association rooms in the Masonic Temple. Plans for an extensive campaign of advertising both in Scioto and all adjoining counties will be outlined at this meeting.

A Doctor's Remedy for Coughs

As a cure for coughs and colds Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey combines these remedies in just the right proportion to do the most good for summer coughs or colds. A Solid Wall of Good Will Nothing has ever disturbed the demand for this car.

Not for a month, not for a week, not for a single day.

Having only one car to build, Dodge Brothers have been able to build it better and better.

But in the sense of radical changes, it is the same car today it was when they designed it.

And still the demand goes on growing greater and greater.

No outside conditions, no conditions inside the industry, seem to slow it up a particle.

The people want the car more intensely at this moment than they ever wanted it before.

This in the face of the fact that production is at the highest peak it has ever reached.

And in the face of the further fact that the sales—in a year and a half—have been more than $63,000,000.

You can find out why this is so from what people are saying about the car all around you.

For months and months they talked particularly of its performance.

Now, you will hear even greater emphasis laid on its economy.

You will hear that with thousands of cars in use, Dodge Brothers dealers have practically no use for repair parts.

That rumor is true. Accidents are the chief source of demand for Dodge repair parts.

You will hear that the cost of maintenance is practically nil.

This too, is true in thousands of cases.

You will hear that the car consumes an unusually small amount of gasoline and oil.

This is literally true—of every Dodge Brothers car, under all conditions.

You will hear that it is very difficult to find Dodge Brothers cars for sale at second-hand anywhere.

You will also hear that the second hand price is only a little lower than the first price.

Both of these things are true—not in one city, nor one state, but all over the Union.

You do not hear people talking about the price of the car.

But you do hear them talking everywhere about the kind of a car it is.

In short, wherever you find a Dodge Brothers car, you will find it surrounded by friends.

You will find it running, from morning to night, in an atmosphere of good will.

No ill will anywhere, good will everywhere—good will that grows out of its good work.

No one knows the value of this good will any better than Dodge Brothers know it.

No one counts more on it, nor works harder to deserve it.

This is your guarantee when you buy one of Dodge Brothers cars—the great good will that all the owners feel toward it and the high value which Dodge Brothers place on that good will.

W. J. FRIEL

The gasoline consumption is unusually low. The tire mileage is unusually high.

PORTSMOUTH NEGROES IDENTIFY BLUE STEEL

Concerning the transferring of the negro, thought to be "Blue Steel" to the Boyd county jail, the Ashland Independent says:

"A record breaking trip in regard to securing requisition papers from another state and bringing back a prisoner was made by Sheriff James E. Geiger and Commonwealth's Attorney John Coldiron, in the case of 'Blue Steel,' wanted here for the murder of Joseph Gibson. Messrs. Geiger and Coldiron left Kenova on Tuesday morning, at two o'clock and arrived at Columbus at 8:30. In a few hours after this the requisition for the return of 'Blue Steel' was honored by Gov. Willis, and the men were on their way to secure their prisoner. They returned on the evening train and reached Kenova at two o'clock this morning, arriving at Gallatin shortly after this hour, where they placed the prisoner in the Boyd county jail. The entire trip was made in a little less than twenty-three hours.

"On the return trip they were delayed about an hour in Portsmouth. During the stop there five or six negroes came into the train to see if the prisoner was really 'Blue Steel.' When the first one approached him, 'Blue Steel' was about half-asleep. The negro recognized him and said, 'Why, hello Blue,' and 'Blue Steel,' recognizing the negro as one of his former friends, said, 'Hello, Bob.' After this about five other negroes came in, but 'Blue Steel,' then fully awake, denied his identity, and pretended not to recognize any of the negroes. However, all six of these negroes identified the prisoner as 'Blue Steel,' but he still denied his identity.

"When the negro was placed in jail he was at once recognized as 'Blue Steel' by Jailer DeBard and to the jailer he admitted his identity. He stated that of the four men who were present when Mr. Gibson was killed, 'Roadsport' was the tallest. He has made no statement, however, about the shooting. 'Blue Steel's' correct name is said to be Wm. White. He is about 5 feet, 7 inches in height, weighs 145 pounds, is twenty-four years of age and is of medium black color.

"His hearing will be held at the September term of court.

"Nearly three hundred persons called at the jail today to see the prisoner."

Dear Miss Wise—Will short sleeves be worn this summer? Some people say that only long sleeves will be good. What do you think about it?

WANT-TO-KNOW.
Long sleeves have been worn for several seasons, to the almost entire exclusion of short ones, but now the very newest sleeve is one that flares out below the elbow and the bottom reaches to about three inches above the wrist. The long-sleeved clinging sleeves are still very much used and liked by so many that they, of course, will be worn as well as the real short sleeves.

Dear Miss Wise—Can you tell me how long yet we have to pay taxes? Has the time been extended?

MRS. N. B.
No the time has not been extended and all taxes must be paid before July first.

A NEAT AND PRACTICAL DESIGN

1669, Ladies' Apron and Sleeve Protector.

This model has several good features. It is made with a waist portion over the back, which joins the skirt at the belt, and so holds the apron snug and trim in place. The sleeve protector is most serviceable, covering that portion of the dress or waist sleeve which is most easily soiled.

The pattern is good for gingham, seersucker, lawn, drill, percale, mohair and satin. It is cut in 3 sizes: Small, Medium and Large. The Medium size requires 5 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for the apron with 3/4 yards for the protector.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Instant Hair Stain Better Than Slow "Restorers"

Some folks would have you believe that if they have discovered a slow restorer, it is a combination of "brown" and "black" that will "restore" the color to gray, streaked or faded hair, without staining. No such preparation is ever been discovered. There is only one preparation that is entirely free from sulphur, lead, arsenic, mercury, etc., and that is called "Brownax." It is so easy and safe to apply that the wonder is that anyone ever used anything else. "Brownax" instantly tints the hair to any shade of brown (or black) that may be desired. If the gray shows on your temples or is streaking your hair—if the ends of your hair are lighter than the balance, or if for any reason you wish to stain all or part of your hair—use "Brownax." A sample and a booklet will be sent you (from manufacturers only) upon receipt of 10c. Mention shade desired. All of the leading drug stores sell "Brownax." Two sizes, 25c and $1.00. Insist on "Brownax" at your hair dresser. Prepared by The Kepone Pharmaceutical Co., 12 E. Pike St., Cincinnati, Ky. Sold and guaranteed in Portsmouth by Wurster Bros. and other leading dealers.

You save at least $150 by buying your piano here. Our proposition is simply this: We have decided to close out the entire stock at the wholesale price. Come in if you are going to buy for cash. You'll never regret it. The reputation of the A. B. Smith Co. protects you. Get your piano now.

WE WILL NOT ALLOW A SINGLE PIANO TO REMAIN UNSOLD. WE WILL NOT REFUSE ANY REASONABLE OFFER. NAME YOUR OWN PRICE AND TERMS

This great mammoth and tremendous closing out sale of Pianos is at the zenith of its success. Prices and terms are thrown to the four winds. This sale will go down in history as the most alarmingly sensational one of its kind ever held or conceived in the brain of man. We are making the statement in this advertisement that we will not refuse any reasonable offer and we mean it most emphatically. Select any Piano in our entire stock, make us an offer, and if it is within reason we will accept it.

Mr. Charles McFarland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McFarland, of Offshore street, and Miss Sarah Hester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hester, of Jefferson street, were married last evening at five o'clock at the First Christian church. Rev. Charles Oakley officiated with the impressive ring ceremony. The attendants were Miss Bess McFarland, sister of groom and Mr. John Hester, brother of the bride. The bride was attired in a dainty gown of white silk trimmed in lace and wore a corsage bouquet of bride roses. The maid wore a pink voile gown trimmed in lace and a corsage bouquet of pink rose buds. After the ceremony the happy couple went to their own prettily furnished home, 418

Bond street. The bride is a sweet, attractive young woman and the groom is employed as mail carrier, and a fine young man.

Mrs. Macconnet's recital of her junior pupils was a delightful affair of yesterday afternoon at the Bigelow church parlors where there was a good attendance. In addition to the excellent program which was published yesterday there were recitations by little Misses Sara Louise Walker, Eleanor Ellison, Margaret Hefner and a piano selection by Master Howard Clark.

The Jerusha club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Harris, 1713 Sixth street.

Will You Give A Dollar To Help Give Kids Good Time?

The youngsters of the city are going to "come into their own" in the way of a special play grounds in York Place, if the plans of a body of enthusiastic women are carried out, and who ever heard of a band of enthusiastic women failing to accomplish any object of this kind when they had "set their hearts on it?"

The boys and girls who enjoyed the good times in York Place in years gone by have found it difficult to understand why the grounds were not kept open. Many of them have since had no place to play except in the street. They want their play grounds restored.

Recognizing these facts, a committee representing women's clubs of the city has been appointed, consisting of Mesdames C. W. Rowe, Freeman W. Chase and Fred Baker, and they, after considerable deliberation, have decided upon a unique plan for raising the money to restore the play grounds.

They have listed a number of Portsmouth people for one dollar each, and beginning next Tuesday will send out a squad of Boy Scouts to collect the dollars.

It is thought that every one on the list will be willing to give as much as a dollar to help insure a pleasant summer for many boys and girls. If anyone wishes to give more than a dollar it will be thankfully accepted, but a dollar is all that will be asked.

The collectors will be in Boy Scout uniforms and it is hoped everyone will have a dollar ready when the Scout calls. This will facilitate the work and insure the collection of the money in a short time.

Mrs. Rowe, who is chairman of the committee, will open headquarters at the Boy Scout rooms, 305 Masonic Temple. Her telephone number will be 1058-L. If you are missed next week, call her up and a Scout will call for your dollar.

The Times will print the list of "Dollar Men and Women."

NOW IS THE TIME FOR PATRIOTIC TO ENLIST

The Portsmouth National Guard recruiting station will be opened on the Gallia street esplanade Friday morning, according to an announcement made by Lieutenant Joseph Horchow, Company K, Seventh Regiment, Thursday. The station will be in charge of Sergeants Clifford B. Anderson and Theron B. Matthews. Orders have been received to recruit the local company to full war strength. Permanent enlistments up to sixty-five and provisional enlistments up to one hundred and forty-one will be received by the officers of Company K.

There is much speculation as to who will be the first to recruit in the face of a crisis with Mexico, either provisional or permanently. The officers are anxious that the Portsmouth company make a good showing while the wave of mobilization and recruiting that is sweeping over the state, to demonstrate to the state that citizens in Portsmouth are just as patriotic as those in any other section.

Companies in the smaller cities of the state are reporting several recruits a day. One of the government tents used by the citizens of Otway after the conflagration will be secured by Company K and will be erected on the Gallia street esplanade and used as a recruiting station.

AUTOS IN CRASH ON SCIOTO TRAIL

Nat Davidson's Ford touring car and C. M. Spencer's Buick runabout came together in front of the Will Farm, on Scioto Trail, about five miles from the city, Wednesday evening, about 7:30 o'clock.

Davidson was turning his car around and Spencer was headed for Portsmouth. The Buick hit the hub cap on the front wheel of the Davidson machine, which caused the car to swing to one side of the road. Spencer quickly applied his brakes, but the right rear wheel of the car slid over the side of the pike. All that saved the car from going over the bank and turning over was a heavy guy wire of a telephone pole. Emil Arthur and child were in the car with Spencer, who is a representative of the Goodrich Tire Company. Spencer's car had the radiator and fenders bent. The Ford had the hub cap broken.

between Fuminwood and Chenosis at the Verdun sector, according to a statement issued today by the war office.

The Germans attacked in force on both banks of the Meuse after the usual heavy bombardment. An attack on the south slope of Dead Man Hill was checked by grenade detachments, according to the official statement. On the right bank of the river there were violent engagements, west and south of Fort Vaux, but they were immediately expelled. Later they returned to the attack when some trenches were captured. A German grenade assault north of Hill 321 was stopped by the French fire.

ONE STORY OF THE CLASH

El Paso, Texas, June 22.—The statement issued by the Mexican commander last night at Juarez reads:

"Immediately upon learning of the position of the American troops in the vicinity of Carrizal, General Felix Gomez despatched a messenger with a request that the American commander withdraw his camp. When the American troops remained motionless, he sent a second despatch bearer, who was fired upon by the American troops after he had delivered his message. The Americans immediately moved forward and attacked General Gomez's command."

"All the prisoners admitted that the blame should be put on the American commander for having ordered the attack. The prisoners were sent to Chihuahua City with the customary protection."

VIGOROUS EFFORTS ARE BEING MADE TO RECRUIT MILITIA TO FULL WAR STRENGTH

Columbus, O., June 22.—Vigorous efforts were being made throughout Ohio today to recruit the national guard to its maximum war strength. The different units are far short and recruiting is not progressing as rapidly as militia officers would like.

The attack on American troops at Carrizal yesterday, combined with Governor Willis' call for volunteers, was expected to stimulate recruiting today and commanders hoped that before night they could report full companies.

A general movement among employers was started today to encourage employees to enlist. Letters sent out by the Ohio Manufacturers' Association urged that the employees be granted restoration to their present positions, and, if possible, full or at least part pay during the period of state or federal service.

The local chamber of commerce arranged a meeting to be held here tonight, at which several speakers are expected to set forth the necessity and importance of raising the national guard to its maximum war strength. Gov. Willis and Adjutant General Hough are expected to address the meeting. Work on the camp northwest of this city is still being pushed and the camp will be complete before the guardsmen are ordered to entrain.

FUNSTON CONFIRMS REPORT OF FIGHT

Washington, June 22.—General Funston reported late last night that he had received official confirmation of a clash between Carranza and American troops early yesterday, near Carrizal, Mexico. He had no details of the incident, except those provided by Mexican officials at Juarez.

General Funston transmitted to the war department the following report from General Bell at El Paso:

"There was a clash this morning at Carrizal, near Villa Ahumada, between Carranza and American troops, in which General Gomez and other Mexicans were killed, the number unknown. Number of Americans killed or wounded unknown."

And the tower "Grunt Who Will" (Quicquid Grogne) it remains to this day.

Fifteen Local Organizations Will Join In Memorial Parade

Final arrangements were made for the Union Memorial which is to be observed Sunday by fifteen local fraternal organizations, at a special meeting of the committee, Wednesday evening. Several thousand members of the organizations are expected to be in the line of march when the parade moves toward Greenlawn cemetery Sunday afternoon, where the memory of the dead will be honored. Governor Frank B. Willis, Columbus, will arrive in this city Sunday noon and will deliver the memorial address.

Grand Marshall O. H. Lewis has made the following report on the parade:

"Members of the Union Memorial will take notice that the parade will start at one-thirty o'clock Sunday afternoon. All lodges who are to participate will meet at Second and Market streets at one o'clock.

The line of march is as follows:
First Division
Will form on Market street, north of and facing Second street.

A cordon of City Police.
Junior Order United American Mechanics band.

Junior Order United American Mechanics Uniformed Rank and members, with Irvin Bowser as aide.

Daughters of America Uniformed Rank and members, with Mrs. Elizabeth Schwartz as aide.

Order of Owls, with Warren Riddleberger as aide.

Second Division
Will form on Market street, north of Second street and west of the esplanade, facing Second street.

Knights of the Maccabees, Uniformed Rank and members, Millard Moore as aide.

Ladies of the Maccabees, Uniformed rank and members, with Mrs. Marie Yarnell as aide.

Fraternity Order of Eagles, with Walter Schuler as aide.

Third Division
Will form on Second street, west of Market street, and facing east.

River City band.
Tribe of Ben Hur Uniformed Rank and members, with Clarence

Ell as aide.
Woodmen of the World, Portsmouth and South Portsmouth camps.

Uniformed ranks and members, with George W. Clifford and W. H. Rollins as aides.

Woodmen Circle, Mrs. Nora Noel as aide.

Governor Frank B. Willis and staff, in automobiles.

The line of march will be east on Second street to Chillicothe street; north on Chillicothe street to Gallia street; east on Gallia street to Officers street; and north on Officers street to the entrance of Greenlawn cemetery. The Grand Marshall will call a halt at the entrance and the companies will open ranks for the speaker and the staff to march through. They will march around Soldiers' Circle, thence to the Lincoln street entrance and then back to the office building, where the program will be held.

Rev. C. E. Chandler, pastor of the Bigelow Methodist church, will deliver the invocation and Rev. John W. Dillon will say benediction.

The porch of the office building, Greenlawn cemetery, will be decorated with hunting and flowers, and a huge arch of flowers will be constructed over the entrance way.

Governor Willis and party will be met at the train by Roy McElhenny, George Emrick and Joseph Diener.

Those attending the meeting Wednesday night were: J. P. Houtel, Eagles; C. F. Loebbaum, Juniors; Millard Moore, Maccabees; George Schaffer, Juniors; S. L. Edgington, Woodmen; C. B. Grouniger, Juniors; W. C. Giles, Juniors; H. Ribble, Juniors; J. H. Coldiron, D. of A.; Warren Riddleberger, Woodmen; Capt. SEEING A NATIONAL CONVENTION

NO. THREE

The big event of Tuesday, so far as Ohio was concerned, was the meeting of the state delegation for organization. We got together for the first time and found that every delegate but one was on hand. And it was quite an imposing delegation too. We had the Secretary of War, Hon. Newton D. Baker; United States Senator Atlee Pomerene; Ex-Governor James E. Campbell; Ex-Governor Judson Harmon; Ex-Governor James M. Cox; National Committeeman E. H. Moore; former candidate for governor, Thomas E. Powell; former Lieutenant Governor W. A. Greenlund; Ex-Congressmen Bulkley, of Cleveland, and Bowdle, of Cincinnati; Hon. William L. Finley, chairman of the Democratic State Committee; James Ross, the veteran Columbus leader, and Thomas J. Noctor, the Cincinnati leader. It was an impressive list of big guns, these delegates and alternates for the rest of us, the high privates, to gaze upon and to feel that it was good to be "among those present."

Our ex-governors were all looking exceedingly well. Governor Campbell is fine, both physically and financially. The fates have been kind to him in a business way of late years, some old investments having panned out nicely and his many warm admirers in Scioto county will be glad to know that he is traveling along on Easy Street. Governor Harmon never looked better in his life than he did at St. Louis. He was the recipient of many congratulations from his friends and he seemed to thoroughly enjoy renewing old friendships and making new ones. He was the recipient of numerous ovations, not only from Ohio but also from various other of the state delegations. Governor Cox, the youngest of the Ex's, and candidate for his old office, was in the pink of condition, greeting friends with that cordiality for which he is famous. He was given many manifestations of the high esteem in which he was held by the Ohio men present and it was a matter of regret that he decided not to accept any of the convention honors that were being passed around.

Another notable who was given the "glad hand" was Senator Pomerene. Pomerene is one of these men whom you like the better you know him. He used to seem distant and formal to me, but getting better acquainted with him at St. Louis, I can say he is anything but that. He is deeply devoted to his work and it was a pleasure to hear statesmen from other states tell of the high esteem in which he was held by his colleagues in the senate of the United States. Of National Committeeman Moore I have spoken but cannot pass without mentioning the growing hold this Youngstown gentleman is getting upon the Democracy of the state. Moore is true blue all the way through, fearless, straight out with what he thinks regardless of consequences.

And then there was the Secretary of War, the Hon. Newton D. Baker, of Cleveland, Ohio. There are some men whom instinctively you feel that you would do anything they wanted you to do, certain that they would not ask anything that is not right. That is the way you feel about Newton D. Baker when you get to know him. It may not be the exact way to put it, but I can think of no better phrase to describe him, than to say that Mr. Baker is the most lovable character I ever met in my political adventures. A man of great ability, of high ideals in private and public life, of supreme courage, dogged and determined in his stand for what he believes to be right, yet withal the gentlest, most considerate of men. Knowing him one can understand why he was held in such high esteem by Tom Johnson and why the Clevelanders are so devoted to him.

Prior to the delegation meeting there was an informal conference of the leaders, Baker, Pomerene, Harmon, Cox, Campbell and Moore at which availability of delegates for the various positions were discussed. It had been agreed previously that Mr. Harmon should be chairman of the delegation and that Senator Pomerene should go on the resolutions committee. Other places were in doubt and there were a number of aspirants whose claims were to be considered. For myself and Wood and Alexander, we did not take much interest in the conferences. We did not put in a bid for anything because we did not think we could get anything and anyway we did not find time heavy on our hands. We were all very much surprised when Governor Cox came to us and said they had agreed upon yours truly for the job of notifying the vice president of his nomination and wanted Mr. Wood to present my name. Of course I was willing to tip it off to whomever we nominated that he was "it," but I felt that if there were others anxious for the place I would feel just as happy to know that I had been thought of. Governor Cox said however that they were all agreed and so the program went through, Wood making a keynote speech in presenting my name and Judge Runyan and Burr Gongwer seconding. The organization details are familiar to Times readers and we will not go into them. When Governor Harmon was made chairman he was given a great ovation and Governor Cox was warmly applauded when he placed National Committeeman Moore in nomination for a second term. Everything in the meeting was of the most harmonious character, quite unlike some other meetings of Ohio delegations.

KINDRED SPIRITS

At the close of the delegation meeting Wood, Alexander and myself were appointed a committee to arrange for a reception that evening at headquarters and to see that visitors were given a warm greeting. We had announcements in the St. Louis papers inviting former Ohioans and we had a hand-out lunch with plenty of punch, some denatured and some of the other kind so that visitors could take their choice for the asking without money and without price. We fear the serving boys were not as careful as they might have been and that there may have been a mixup somewhere, but nobody got hurt and nobody squealed, and it kept a man busy replenishing those big punchbowls during the evening.

There was a great crush at the reception, the rooms being jammed for several hours. Ohio had some of the large parlors of the Planters and they made ideal headquarters. The Columbus Glee Club sang several selections, John Shuff, John Henry Newman made speeches every few minutes and altogether there was "some evening" in putting Ohio on the map.

The big Coliseum at St. Louis was gay with flags and bunting when the delegates assembled Wednesday for the first session. American flags, big and little, were everywhere. As delegates took their seats each was handed a flag, also a palm leaf fan as it was just a little warm. We Ohioans, thanks to the energy of our national committeemen, had splendid seats, well down in front and almost immediately in front of the speakers' stand. There wasn't a vacant seat in the Ohio section, either delegates or alternates when a reverend gentleman opened proceedings with prayer. The effect was somewhat spoiled by a Texas delegate shouting, "That's the right dope, old boy" at some phrase that caught his fancy, the convention laughing audibly. Then a rather youngish looking man took charge of affairs and proceeded to read a speech. "Who's that?" was the question asked along the line, a question that was answered "W. F. McCombs, national chairman." McCombs made a fair speech, about the kind you would expect from a third rate orator. He got a "hand" when he quit but the band got a bigger one when it played "Columbia."

Hon. Martin H. Glynn was next on deck and he made a great impression. Glynn is a finished orator, understands how to play upon the emotions of his audience. He had a crowd in sympathy with his thought, and he achieved a splendid triumph. His address was rather long, but with me, it did not seem long. I was so interested. Every now and then Glynn would have to stop as some glittering sentence caught the fancy of the delegates or of the audience. When he mentioned President's Wilson's name and declared that his Americanism was as pure as the American flag, there was a great demonstration, the vast crowd rising to its feet and waving the flags with which they had been provided, while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." It was an inspiring scene, one never to be forgotten. At another point some reference to President Wilson brought out a demonstration that lasted for from 15 to 20 minutes. This was a genuine outburst, the real thing, but even it tamed down at the end. Take it from us any demonstration that lasts over 15 minutes has to be padded to keep a-going.

We almost lost Bob Alexander during the outburst. Bob had a clear, piercing yell that could be heard all over the hall. It was the pride of the Ohio boys and the despair of Pennsylvania and Texas who were our neighbors. The Texas boys held out all sorts of inducements to Bob to leave us and make his home with them as official cheer master during the convention, but the Chillicothe statesman declared he was needed at home. And at home he stayed. Bob was ably seconded by W. S. King, an Ashtabula delegate who declared that the only time he got a chance to yell was at a convention, as there were not enough Democrats in his part of the state to wad a shot gun.

After the convention adjourned I was with a crowd of newspaper men who had been at Chicago and it was their opinion that Glynn's effort was much superior to that of Harding. But it was explained that Harding, in making his speech, was in a position akin to that of a man tied to a post and trying to run a foot race. His address had to be tempered to conditions, the life had to be cut out of it in order to placate the Bull Moose. Personally, I believe Harding to be the better orator of the two. He has a more graceful delivery and his voice is more resonant.

BedTime Tales

Fairies Three

Up in the big, dark blue sky three little fairies (and maybe she did—who knows?) old Mother Wind blew the big, past the Milky Way and over the drifting cloudlets; through the night they sailed.

Not such a strong boat had they either, for they were sailing on a small white cloud. But they didn't care for a little thing like that—not they! Fairies never worry about whether boats are strong or whether they know where they are going. Not they! They laughed and talked and had a beautiful time as they sailed through the starry night.

But after a long, long sail, the three fairies got tired, very, very tired, and they wished so much they could stop and rest. You know just how tired you get when you sail and look at pretty sights and laugh for hours at a time, so you can easily imagine how those fairies felt.

"Of course we like to sail through the sky," said the first fairy.

"And of course we like to see pretty things, so we don't mind if we are a little tired—just a little tired," said a second.

"Oh, of course we don't," added a third. "Only don't you think this cloud is getting rather small? I'm finding it pretty hard to hold on to this edge."

"I guess not," said the other two, together. "Maybe you're getting tired and want to rest."

"It would be nice if we had room to stretch out more," admitted the third fairy, who, now that she was beginning to notice tiredness, wanted room to lie down; "but never mind."

"To be sure we don't mind," said the first fairy; "but wouldn't it be fun to ride on the moon?"

And at that very minute, as though she had heard the fairy's

Closer and closer their white cloud came step from the cloud to the moon. What fun it was to stretch out in the moon's broad cradle! How happy the fairies were!

"This is better than sailing on a cloud," said one; "for here we can see everything and be comfortable too."

"Maybe we're too comfortable," laughed the second fairy sleepily, "for I feel like shutting my eyes this very minute!"

And would you believe it? Those fairies three, happy in the moon boat's comfortable silver cradle, drifted straight off into a little child's dream, and where that was, nobody knows!

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, June 22—Union Square's astronomer has just completed his thirty years of service. Nightly he stands out in the street with his telescope and collects the dimes for explaining the different planets. His customers are few but he still sticks to the job.

When Col. Watterson used to sojourn at the Everett House, when Tiffany's still occupied the corner of Fifteenth street at Broadway, with Mrs. Lynch's diamond store at Fourteenth street, the man with the telescope could be seen every night.

The old Everett House is no more; Tiffany's, Mrs. Lynch's and other landmarks of bygone years have vanished but the telescope remains and the man with it.

Then, too, there is "Dick the Telescope Man" of Columbus Circle. He has been there for years.

In all there are about six telescope men in New York. All of them are barely able to scrape up a miserly sort of livelihood with their telescopes, but they never change. Something about their work appeals to them and they take it very seriously—very seriously indeed.

Col. Sam Hodges, a well known Southerner who frequents the hotel lobbies downtown and is a familiar figure, has just returned from a trip to Atlanta. While in the hotel there he approached the negro waiter in the dining room.

"George," he said, "who is the head nigger around this here establishment?"

The negro waiter drew himself up very pompous like. Said he: "I am the colored head waiter and the rest of these gentlemen are the colored waiters."

"Is that so?" said Col. Hodges. "Well it's all right George. I was just looking for the head nigger to slip him $5."

"Shucks Boss," said the head waiter smiling. "I knew you all was from the South. I'm the head nigger here and if you don't believe it ask the rest of them niggers."

Penryhn Stanlavs, Harrison

Fisher and other New York artists are drawing pen and ink sketches of what they regard as the most dangerous girl as the result of the Winter Garden song hit: "You're a Dangerous Girl." Most of the pictures show beautiful girls with dimples, curls and other female allurements. Rubie Goldberg was asked to draw his picture of a dangerous girl and he drew a woman who looked like a combination of an ant eater and a laughing hyena. "Why is she dangerous?" he was asked. "Because she's liable to scare somebody to death."

A Broadway philosopher has found that there is no difference between an old millionaire, a rich man's son and a worm. The chickens get them all in the end.

A well known actor has a black and white striped car that can be seen for blocks. Not satisfied with this he has an electrical arrangement which flashes his name in electric lights on the rear of the car about twice in a block. He rides up and down Fifth avenue at the busiest time of the afternoon and seems to enjoy the attention he excites.

Two years ago he was hunting a job in a chorus but couldn't find one. He then agreed to go on for a week free at a vaudeville house. His success was instantaneous and he has been spending every cent he makes since then advertising himself. He even has his name on huge billboards around New York.

Childish Fancies

The dooryard is filled with yellow stars.

The meadow is speckled with blue. They are bits of the sky that fell from on high.

When the yellow stars came through.

The beautiful world has been crying, I know.

For the grass is all wet with its tears.

But the robins are here with the songs of good cheer

That they have been singing for years.

I am sure there's a wedding out there 'mong the trees.

They are dressed all in pink, green and white.

And out on the air floats sweet perfume so rare—

It fills me with joy and delight.

The breezes are whispering beautiful tales

Of days that will come very soon.

When skies are the bluest, sweet summer the truest.

The name of that time? It is June.

Two tourists, unexpectedly coming across the shack of a native, in a wild and sparsely settled part of Arkansas, stopped and solicited a drink of buttermilk. As they gulped down the refreshing drink one of them remarked: "This would sure be great if it had a chunk of ice in it!"

"Ya-as," drawled the mountaineer, with a slow grin. "But whoever heard of ice in August?"

Elsie's Find

Six-year-old Elsie teased her mother unrelentingly for a chew of gum before they went into the theater, but explaining that it was impolite to chew in public, her mother refused to give it to her.

Little Elsie did not forget the gum, however, for when the show was over she said:

"Mamma, where does gum come from?"

"From a tree, Elsie," replied her mother.

"What kind of a tree, mamma?"

"Why, a spruce tree, my dear."

"Well, the seat I sat in must have been made of a spruce tree, 'cause I dug a nice big chew of gum off the bottom of it!"—Judge.

AMERICAN BLOOD SHED IN BATTLE WITH CARRANZISTAS

Surprise Attack Made On U. S. Troops, Report

EL PASO, JUNE 22--Forty American soldiers were killed yesterday in a clash with Carranza soldiers, at Carrizal, 90 miles south of El Paso, according to a dispatch received by the Mexican Commander at Juarez. Many Mexicans were also killed. Mexicans under Gen. Gomez made a surprise attack upon a scouting patrol. General Gomez was killed. The Americans engaged are reported to have been members of a troop from the Tenth Cavalry, a negro regiment.

40 AMERICAN TROOPERS ARE SLAIN, REPORT

El Paso, Texas, June 22--Evacuation of Juarez by the Carranza garrison is expected today as a result of yesterday's battle between troops of the Tenth cavalry and a Carranza command at Carrizal in which a number of both sides were reported to have been killed.

Reports to General George Bell, Jr., commanding the El Paso military district, indicated that hurried preparations for the departure of the 4,000 troops under General Francisco Gonzales were being made in Juarez throughout the night. Troop trains with steam up, stood in the railway yards while supplies, armament, food and forage were being hastily loaded into freight cars. Captain Jas. Allison, provost marshal of El Paso, received a report from a Mexican source early today that the evacuation was already under way.

Streets Filled With Cavalrymen

Throughout the night the streets in Juarez were filled with cavalrymen, a number of small detachments moving from the city and into the hills beyond, while others left Juarez ostensibly to take station at border points within a few miles of El Paso. However, neither Andres Garcia, Mexican consul at El Paso, who spent the night in the Mexican town, nor Mexican military officials would discuss the reported evacuation over the telephone.

Details of the engagement at Carrizal are awaited anxiously here. General Bell said early today that no reports had been received from General Pershing, the American expeditionary commander, or from any of his subordinate officers.

Confidence was expressed, however, that the American version of the clash would be received later in the day.

Fight 65 Miles From Colonia Dublin

The battle was fought 65 miles from Colonia Dublin. General Pershing's field headquarters, and with no means of wire communication it would take a courier sometime to reach the expeditionary commander with a report.

A new version of the engagement was brought here today by a Mexican civilian who was in Villa Ahumada early yesterday afternoon and who said he assisted in dressing some of the Mexican wounded. He said that

El Paso, June 22--American and Carranza troops fought a bloody battle yesterday only a few hours after President Wilson's six thousand word rebuke to General Carranza has gone forward to Mexico City.

The engagement took place on the Santo Domingo ranch near the Mexican town of Carrizal which is nine miles southwest of Villa Ahumada, the Mexican field headquarters in Northwest Chihuahua. The number of dead, American or Mexican, is not definitely known here but forty American troops of the Tenth cavalry are said to have been killed and the Mexicans are said to have lost more than two score. Seventeen Americans are declared by Mexican officials to have been captured and to have been hurried to Chihuahua City under adequate guard. A machine gun used by the Mexicans is reported to have done heavy execution.

The size of the Mexican force, whose commander, General Felix Gomez, was killed, is not known.

News of the battle was received in Juarez early yesterday afternoon by General Francisco Gonzales, Carranza commander of the military zone of the border. For some reason Gen. Gonzales kept the story secret until late in the afternoon when an American,

ON PERSHING'S REPORT HINGES DECISION OF PEACE OR WAR

Washington, June 22--General Pershing's interpretation of the fight between Carranza troops and American cavalry near Carrizal, Mexico yesterday, expected momentarily today, probably will determine largely whether the incident will precipitate immediate war.

If his report declares the American soldiers were attacked in an apparent attempt to enforce General Carranza's demand that the U. S. troop movements be north toward the border it is considered probable the clash will be accepted by President Wilson as an act of war.

Reports from Mexican sources telling of the clash but not disclosing American casualties were accepted by officials as fairly authentic, but although none would believe that the American made the first attack. The report created a spirit of greater tension than has existed over Mexican relations for many months. Many influential officials admitted privately they believed their attack was "the last straw" on the load of indignities suffered by this nation from Mexican disorders.

Pending receipt of General Funston's report, President Wilson considered the situation seriously. He was anxious to receive from Mexico City some indication of Carranza's attitude toward the American note sent Tuesday. If the fight represents the answer to the note there is little doubt that President Wilson will recommend that congress declare war against Mexico.

The incident yesterday renewed efforts of the war department to prepare the national guard for immediate service at the border. It was said some units already mobilized might be ordered to entrain not later than tomorrow.

AUTOS IN CRASH ON SCIOTO TRAIL

Nat Davidson's Ford touring car, evening, about 7:30 o'clock, and C. M. Spencer's Buick runabout came together in front of the Will around and Spencer was headed for Four farm, on Scioto Trail, about five miles from the city. Wednesday cap on the front wheel of the David-

J. C. Huppel, returning to the border from the interior, brought to El Paso news that he had seen numbers of Mexican dead along the Mexican Central railroad tracks at Villa Ahumada, and had been told that there had been an encounter.

ONE STORY OF THE CLASH

El Paso, Texas, June 22--The statement issued by the Mexican commander at Juarez, reads:

"Immediately upon learning of the position of the American troops in the vicinity of Carrizal, General Felix Gomez despatched a messenger with a request that the American commander withdraw his camp. When the American troops remained motionless, he sent a second despatch bearer, who was fired upon by the American troops after he had delivered his message. The Americans immediately moved forward and attacked General Gomez's command."

"All the prisoners admitted that the blame should be put on the American commander for having ordered the attack. The prisoners were sent to Chihuahua City with the customary protection."

son machine, which caused the car to swing to one side of the road. Spencer quickly applied his brakes, but the right rear wheel of the car slid over the side of the pike. All that saved the car from going over the bank and turning over was a heavy guy wire of a telephone pole. Emil Arthurs and child were in the car with Spencer, who is a representative of the Goodrich Tire Company. Spencer's car had the radiator and fenders bent. The Ford had the hub cap broken.

GERMANS CAPTURE TRENCHES

Paris, June 22--After violent attacks lasting all night the Germans captured front line trenches between Fuminwood and Chenois at the Verdun sector, according to a statement issued today by the war office.

The Germans attacked in force on both banks of the Meuse after the usual heavy bombardment. An attack on the south slope of Dead Man Hill was checked by grenade detachments, according to the official statement. On the right bank of the river there were violent engagements, west and south of Fort Vaux, but they were immediately expelled. Later they returned to the attack when some trenches were captured. A German grenade assault north of Hill 321 was stopped by the French fire.

Jacobus In Rare Form; Frankfort Blanked In Last Game

Local Pitcher Yielded But Two Blows Yesterday; Charleston Here Today

ACKED by faultless support that at times bordered on the sensational Big Larry Jacobus yesterday afternoon as a bone-chilling wind swept across Millbrook blanked the Frankfort Old Taylors, 4 to 0. The sum total of the visitors' hitting amounted to a double secured by Jones in the second inning and a perfect bunt by Kimble. That was all the swatting the visitors indulged in so small wonder that kalsoume was splashed in their eyes.

Mixing them up in big league style and now and then inserting a wicked spitter Jacobus toyed with the visitors, who never had a look in, the Champs making it four in a row. The game was featured by the hitting of Bauer, who rained two triples to right and McHenry and the fine fielding of Demoe and Bush.

FIRST INNING—At the beginning Kimble popped to Bush. Henges was a dead bird. Jacobus to Spencer. Lindholm popped to Spencer.

SECOND INNING—Kimble popped to right. McKittick hit late double play. Bauer to Spencer, a great play. Spencer scored to McKittick. Demoe was easy for Bacon and Kelley. Fisher perished some way.

THIRD INNING—Holmes popped to McHenry. Hargrave flied to Fisher. Bacon was a Bauer. Spencer victim.

FOURTH INNING—Kimble beat a bunt. McKittick sacrificed. Dilly to Spencer. Lindholm flied to Dilly. Kelley flied to Fisher. Dilly was thrown out by McKittick. McKittick flied to left. Dilly snared to Jones.

FIFTH INNING—Jones skied to Dills. McKittick looped to center. Bush threw out Holmes. Spencer singled over short and went out stealing. Demoe singled to short. Fisher hit into double play. Bacon to Jones to Kelley.

SIXTH INNING—Hargrave succeeded. Demoe to first. Bacon was lead. Bauer to Spencer. Kimble's smash was straight at Spencer.

BURLEY CUBS WIN TWO GAMES

Huntington, June 22.—Maysville's Burley Cubs took the final double header of the series yesterday afternoon at League park by scores of eight to nine in eleven innings and seven to one. The first game was tucked away by our boys until Gaffin weakened and his defense crumbled before the heavy attack of the invading Kentuckians. After lying the score in the eighth the contest went eleven innings. Mack McGraw, the hardest hitting pitcher in the league, was sent to the bat for Hoffman in the ninth round, but gained nothing more than a walk. In the eleventh he tripled and scored on a sacrifice fly. Huntington was unable to score in her half. French and Shepherd pitched the winners and Gaffin and King were the losing pitchers.

FIRST GAME—Maysville.....2 0 0 1 0 0 3 2 0 1—8
Huntington.....0 0 1 0 2 0 0 0 0—9

SECOND GAME—Maysville.....0 0 1 4 0 0 0 2 0—7

Bacon Not Unbeatable

Bacon pitched a good game, but his overconfidence over him getting all the breaks soon got on the nerves of the Kentuckians and their defense cracked in the sixth and eighth innings. Bacon is a good pitcher, but he is far from being unbeatable. Yes, many, many miles, dear fans.

their lead. The Champs have 16 more games to play during the first half.

Charleson is the Millbrook attraction today at 3 p. m. This is Butcher and Grocers Day.

Bauer hammered out two triples yesterday and played fine ball around Bag No. 3.

The Old Taylors said goodbye to Portsmouth this morning and departed on the 8:30 C. and O. for Maysville.

Joe Bush is in his first hitting slump of the season. Joe, at that, is hitting .328 so he should worry.

Empire Jacobs again went through a game without having a kick registered against his umpiring.

The Charleston Senators play the last Sunday game of the first half in Millbrook Sunday. Don't miss it.

JUST GOSSIP

The Lexington Colts also won yesterday so the Champs did not increase.

Charleston Here Today

The Charleston Senators will open a four game series in the yard this afternoon. These games will be for "lild" as the Charlestonians will try to improve their position in the race by winning the almost unbeatable Champs. Friday will be Ladies' Day and the Saturday and Sunday games will commence at 2:30.

Larry's Day To Shine

Larry Jacobus pitched one of the best games of his career yesterday. Only 28 men faced him and one of these laid down a sacrifice. The Old Taylors succumbed in order to every inning except the fourth when Kimble beat a bunt and Henges sacrificed. Jones got a hit in the second inning but was doubled at third when Bauer stopped McKittick's roller, touched Jones and then chucked the ball to first ahead of McKittick.

Jacobus had fine speed, a swell spitball and he certainly moved down the Kentuckians, who never had a look in.

NO LADIES IN BALL PARK

For the first time probably since Portsmouth edged its way into the Ohio State league not a single lady witnessed Wednesday's Portsmouth-Burley game. It was entirely too cool for the feminine sex, who will pick a more favorable day to watch the athletes perform.

Nutter Stars

Everett Nutter, who held an outfield post with the Charleston team in the Ohio State league last season, is playing the outfield for the New Haven, Conn. team in the Eastern Association.

Nutter has written his friend, Stewart Dills, of the local team, that he is "getting things afire." He is hitting .287 and already this season has cracked out eight triples and seven doubles.

Nutter was in the Ohio State league for several seasons.

Demoe Made Great Stop

Demoe played another nifty game at short. He threw out Manager Holmes a grounder right over second in the eighth inning. "You can't beat a team going like that," Holmes mumbled on his way back to the dug out.

Kentuckians Were Helpless

One had to see the article of ball Jacobus hurled yesterday to really appreciate his cleverly pitched game. He was never in the hole and the Old Taylors were helpless at the bat. Larry's sweeping curve was worked overtime and with deadly effect.

Bauer Had Big Day

Third Baseman Bauer stepped in to the bleeding rays of the sun-light yesterday. He faced two triples to the right field fence, made several flashy stops and scored three runs. A pretty fair day's work, thank you.

Dilly Hit On The Hand

For a few moments fear played tag on the spine of the Champs as it looked like Dillhoefer was badly hurt in the sixth when a pitched ball struck the back of his right hand. Dilly shook it off and ran down to first as if nothing happened. The three in the bleachers applauded.

Colts Win Last Game

Lexington won the last game from Charleston in Senatorland Wednesday, the score being 6 to 5.

The score: Lexington.....0 3 0 0 1 0 0 1—6
Charleston.....2 0 1 0 1 0 0 1—7
Batteries—Lingrel and Beers; Marshall, Bender and McDaniel; Empire-Tannerhill.

Joins Team On Friday

Outfielder Singleton, who is also said to be a splendid catcher will join the Champs Friday. He has been a teammate of Robert Post at West Virginia Wesleyan. Three Ohio State league teams bid for Singleton's services.

BAUER HAD BIG DAY

Third Baseman Bauer stepped in to the bleeding rays of the sun-light yesterday. He faced two triples to the right field fence, made several flashy stops and scored three runs. A pretty fair day's work, thank you.

Dilly Hit On The Hand

For a few moments fear played tag on the spine of the Champs as it looked like Dillhoefer was badly hurt in the sixth when a pitched ball struck the back of his right hand. Dilly shook it off and ran down to first as if nothing happened. The three in the bleachers applauded.

SEEING A NATIONAL CONVENTION
NO. THREE

The big event of Tuesday, so far as Ohio was concerned, was the meeting of the state delegation for organization. We got together for the first time and found that every delegate but one was on hand. And it was quite an imposing delegation too. We had the Secretary of War, Hon. Newton D. Baker; United States Senator Atlee Pomerene; Ex-Governor James E. Campbell; Ex-Governor Judson Harmon; Ex-Governor James M. Cox; National Committeeman E. H. Moore; former candidate for governor, Thomas E. Powell; former Lieutenant Governor W. A. Greenlund; Ex-Congressman Butkley, of Cleveland, and Bowdle, of Cincinnati; Hon. William L. Finley, chairman of the Democratic State Committee; James Ross, the veteran Columbus leader, and Thomas J. Noctor, the Cincinnati leader. It was an impressive list of big guns, these delegates and alternates for the rest of us, the high privates, to gaze upon and to feel that it was good to be "among those present."

Our ex-governors were all looking exceedingly well. Governor Campbell is fine, both physically and financially. The fates have been kind to him in a business way of late years, some old investments having panned out nicely and his many warm admirers in Scioto county will be glad to know that he is traveling along on Easy Street. Governor Harmon never looked better in his life than he did at St. Louis. He was the recipient of many congratulations from his friends and he seemed to thoroughly enjoy renewing old friendships and making new ones. He was the recipient of numerous ovations, not only from Ohio but also from various other of the state delegations. Governor Cox, the youngest of the Ex's, and candidate for his old office, was in the pink of condition, greeting friends with that cordiality for which he is famous. He was given many manifestations of the high esteem in which he was held by the Ohio men present and it was a matter of regret that he decided not to accept any of the convention honors that were being passed around.

Another notable who was given the "glad hand" was Senator Pomerene. Pomerene is one of those men whom you like the better you know him. He used to seem distant and formal to me, but getting better acquainted with him at St. Louis, I can say he is anything but that. He is deeply devoted to his work and it was a pleasure to hear statesmen from other states tell of the high esteem in which he was held by his colleagues in the senate of the United States. Of National Committeeman Moore I have spoken but cannot pass without mentioning the growing hold this Youngstown gentleman is getting upon the Democracy of the state. Moore is true blue all the way through, fearless, straight out with what he thinks regardless of consequences.

And then there was the Secretary of War, the Hon. Newton D. Baker, of Cleveland, Ohio. There are some men whom instinctively you feel that you would do anything they wanted you to do, certain that they would not ask anything that is not right. That is the way you feel about Newton D. Baker when you get to know him. It may not be the exact way to put it, but I can think of no better phrase to describe him, than to say that Mr. Baker is the most lovable character I ever met in my political adventures. A man of great ability, of high ideals in private and public life, of supreme courage, dogged and determined in his stand for what he believes to be right, yet withal the gentlest, most considerate of men. Knowing him one can understand why he was held in such high esteem by Tom Johnson and why the Clevelanders are so devoted to him.

Prior to the delegation meeting there was an informal conference of the leaders, Baker, Pomerene, Harmon, Cox, Campbell and Moore at which availability of delegates for the various positions were discussed. It had been agreed previously that Mr. Harmon should be chairman of the delegation and that Senator Pomerene should go on the resolutions committee. Other places were in doubt and there were a number of aspirants whose claims were to be considered. For myself and Wood and Alexander, we did not take much interest in the conferences. We did not put in a bid for anything because we did not think we could get anything and anyway we did not find time heavy on our hands. We were all very much surprised when Governor Cox came to us and said they had agreed upon yours truly for the job of notifying the vice president of his nomination and wanted Mr. Wood to present my name. Of course I was willing to tip it off to whomever we nominated that he was "it," but I felt that if there were others anxious for the place I would feel just as happy to know that I had been thought of. Governor Cox said however that they were all agreed and so the program went through, Wood making a keynote speech in presenting my name and Judge Runyan and Burr Gangwer seconding. The organization details are familiar to Times readers and we will not go into them. When Governor Harmon was made chairman he was given a great ovation and Governor Cox was warmly applauded when he placed National Committeeman Moore as nomination for a second term. Everything in the meeting was of the most harmonious character, quite unlike some other meetings of Ohio delegations.

KINDRED SPIRITS

At the close of the delegation meeting Wood, Alexander and myself were appointed a committee to arrange for a reception that evening at headquarters and to see that visitors were given a warm greeting. We had announcements in the St. Louis papers inviting former Ohioans and we had a hand-out lunch with plenty of punch, some denatured and some of the other kind so that visitors could take their choice for the asking without money and without price. We fear the serving boys were not as careful as they might have been and that there may have been a mixup somewhere, but nobody got hurt and nobody squealed, and it kept a man busy replenishing those big punchbowls during the evening.

There was a great rush at the reception, the rooms being jammed for several hours. Ohio had some of the large parlors of the Planters and they made ideal headquarters. The Columbus Glee Club sang several selections, John Shuff, John Henry Newman made speeches every few minutes and altogether there was "some evening" in putting Ohio on the map.

The big Coliseum at St. Louis was gay with flags and bunting when the delegates assembled Wednesday for the first session. American flags, big and little, were everywhere. As delegates took their seats each was handed a flag, also a palm-leaf fan as it was just a little warm. We Ohioans, thanks to the energy of our national committeemen, had splendid seats, well down in front and almost immediately in front of the speakers' stand. There wasn't a vacant seat in the Ohio section, either delegates or alternates when a reverend gentleman opened proceedings with prayer. The effect was somewhat spoiled by a Texas delegate shouting, "That's the right dope, old boy" at some phrase that caught his fancy, the convention laughing audibly. Then a rather youngish looking man took charge of affairs and proceeded to read a speech. "Who's that?" was the question asked along the line, a question that was answered "W. F. McCombs, national chairman." McCombs made a fair speech, about the kind you would expect from a third rate orator. He got a "hand" when he quit but the band got a bigger one when it played "Columbia."

Hon. Martin H. Glynn was next on deck and he made a great impression. Glynn is a finished orator, understands how to play upon the emotions of his audience. He had a crowd in sympathy with his thought, and he achieved a splendid triumph. His address was rather long, but with me, it did not seem long. I was so interested. Every now and then Glynn would have to stop as some glittering sentence caught the fancy of the delegates or of the audience. When he mentioned President's Wilson's name and declared that his Americanism was as pure as the American flag, there was a great demonstration, the vast crowd rising to its feet and waving the flags with which they had been provided, while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." It was an inspiring scene, one never to be forgotten. At another point some reference to President Wilson brought out a demonstration that lasted for from 15 to 20 minutes. This was a genuine outburst, the real thing, but even it tamed down at the end. Take it from us any demonstration that lasts over 15 minutes has to be padded to keep a-going.

We almost lost Bob Alexander during the outburst. Bob had a clear, piercing yell that could be heard all over the hall. It was the pride of the Ohio boys and the despair of Pennsylvania and Texas who were our neighbors. The Texas boys held out all sorts of inducements to Bob to leave us and make his home with them as official cheer master during the convention, but the Chillicothe statesman declared he was needed at home. And at home he stayed. Bob was ably seconded by W. S. King, an Ashtabula delegate who declared that the only time he got a chance to yell was at a convention, as there were not enough Democrats in his part of the state to wad a shot gun.

After the convention adjourned I was with a crowd of newspaper men who had been at Chicago and it was their opinion that Glynn's effort was much superior to that of Harding. But it was explained that Harding, in making his speech, was in a position akin to that of a man tied to a post and trying to run a foot race. His address had to be tempered to conditions, the life had to be cut out of it in order to placate the Bull Moose. Personally, I believe Harding to be the better orator of the two. He has a more graceful delivery and his voice is more resonant.

When the convention adjourned the Ohio Society of St. Louis took Ohio delegates and friends on an automobile ride, after which there was a steamboat ride on the Mississippi, with lunch served on the boat. I was in a car with Charlie Morris, of the Ohio Democratic press bureau, A. D. Metz, of Wooster, and Dr. Robert Biechle, president of a bank at Wooster. Dr. Biechle is a cousin of Dr. Joe Lake, of Portsmouth, and has visited here. We were driven by a former Circleville resident, Mr. Wright, and a most delightful gentleman he was. Morris and I did not go on the boat trip, returning to the hotel instead where with Chairman Finley and John T. Bourke, of the Cleveland Leader, we had dinner. Later Governor Cox and former Congressman Tim Ansherry joined us. Ansherry is a real good fellow. He is now practicing law in Washington, in partnership with Wade Ellis, former attorney general of Ohio, and is making good. I saw a good bit of him during the convention and he is a most delightful companion.

Bed Time Tales

Fairies Three

It is the big, dark blue sky three wish (and maybe she did—who knows?) old Mother Wind blew the fairies three straight for the brand big; past the milky way and over the drifting cloudlets; through the night they sailed.

Not such a strong bust had they either, for they were sailing on a small white cloud. But they didn't care for a little thing like that—not they! Fairies never worry about whether boats are strong or whether they know where they are going—not they! They laughed and talked and had a beautiful time as they sailed through the starry night.

But after a long, long sail, the three fairies got tired, very, very tired, and they wished so much they could stop and rest. You know just how tired you get when you sail and look at pretty sights and laugh for hours at a time, so you can easily imagine how those fairies felt.

"Of course we like to sail through the sky," said the first fairy.

"And of course we like to see pretty things, so we don't mind if we are a little tired—just a little tired," said a second.

"Oh, of course we don't," added a third. "Only don't you think this cloud is getting rather small? I'm finding it pretty hard to hold on to this edge."

"I guess not," said the other cloud, "for here we can see everything and be comfortable too."

"It would be nice if we had room to stretch out more," admitted the third fairy, who, now that she was beginning to notice tiredness, wanted room to lie down; "but never mind."

"To be sure we don't mind," said the first fairy, "but wouldn't it be fun to ride on the moon?"

And at that very minute, as though she had heard the fairy's wish, the moon came sailing down.

Closer and closer their white cloud came step from the cloud to the moon. What fun it was to stretch out in the moon's broad cradle! How finding it pretty hard to hold on to this edge."

"This is better than sailing on a cloud," said one; "for here we can see everything and be comfortable too."

"Maybe we're too comfortable," laughed the second fairy sleepily, "for I feel like shutting my eyes this very minute."

And would you believe it? Those fairies three, happy in the moon boat's comfortable silver cradle, drifted straight off into a little child's dream, and where that was, nobody knows!

New York, June 22—Union Square's astronomer has just completed his thirty years of

Fisher and other New York artists are drawing pen and ink sketches of what they regard as the most dangerous girl as the result of the Winter Garden song hit "You're a Dangerous Girl."

Most of the pictures show beautiful girls with dimples, curls and other female allurements. Rube Goldberg was asked to draw his picture of a dangerous girl and he drew a woman who looked like a combination of an ant eater and a laughing hyena. "Why is she dangerous?" he was asked. "Because she's liable to scare somebody to death."

A Broadway philosopher has found that there is no difference between an old millionaire, a rich man's son and a worm. The chickens get them all in the end.

A well known actor has a black and white striped ear that can be seen for blocks. Not satisfied with this he has an electrical arrangement which flashes his name in electric lights on the rear of the car about twice in a block. He rides up and down Fifth Avenue at the busiest time of the afternoon and seems to enjoy the attention he excites.

Two years ago he was hunting a job in a chorus but couldn't find one. He then agreed to go on for a week free at a vaudeville house. His success was instantaneous and he has been spending every cent he makes since then advertising himself. He even has his name on huge billboards around New York.

Childish Fancies
The dooryard is filled with yellow stars.
The meadow is specked with blue. They are bits of the sky that fell from on high.
When the yellow stars come through:

The beautiful world has been crying, I know.
For the grass is all wet with its tears.
But the robins are here with the songs of good cheer
That they have been singing for years.

I am sure there's a wedding out there 'mong the trees.
They are dressed all in pink, green and white,
And out on the air floats sweet perfume so rare—
It fills me with joy and delight.

The breezes are whispering beautiful tales
Of days that will come very soon,
When skies are the bluest, sweet summer the truest.
The name of that time? It is June.

In The Backwoods
Two tourists, unexpectedly coming across the shack of a native, in a wild and sparsely settled part of Arkansas, stopped and solicited a drink of buttermilk. As they guzzled down the refreshing drink one of them remarked: "This would sure be great if it had a chunk of ice in it!"

"Ya-as," drawled the mountaineer, with a slow grin, "but whoever heard of ice in August?"

Elsie's Find
Six-year-old Elsie teased her mother unrelentingly for a chew of gum before they went into the theater, but explaining that it was impolite to chew in public, her mother refused to give it to her.

Little Elsie did not forget the gum, however, for when the show was over she said:

"Mamma, where does gum come from?"

"From a tree, Elsie," replied her mother.

"What kind of a tree, mamma?"

"Why, a spruce tree, my dear."

"Why, the sort I sat in must have been made of a spruce tree, 'cause I dug a nice big chew of gum off the bottom of it?"—Judge.

Junior Management
A farmer's son, resident not far from Chicago, was charged with the management of the farm. When the time came to render an account of his expenses, one item was observed—"Charity, $50,000."

"I fear that charity covers a multitude of sins," said the father, looking at the clever son through his spectacles.

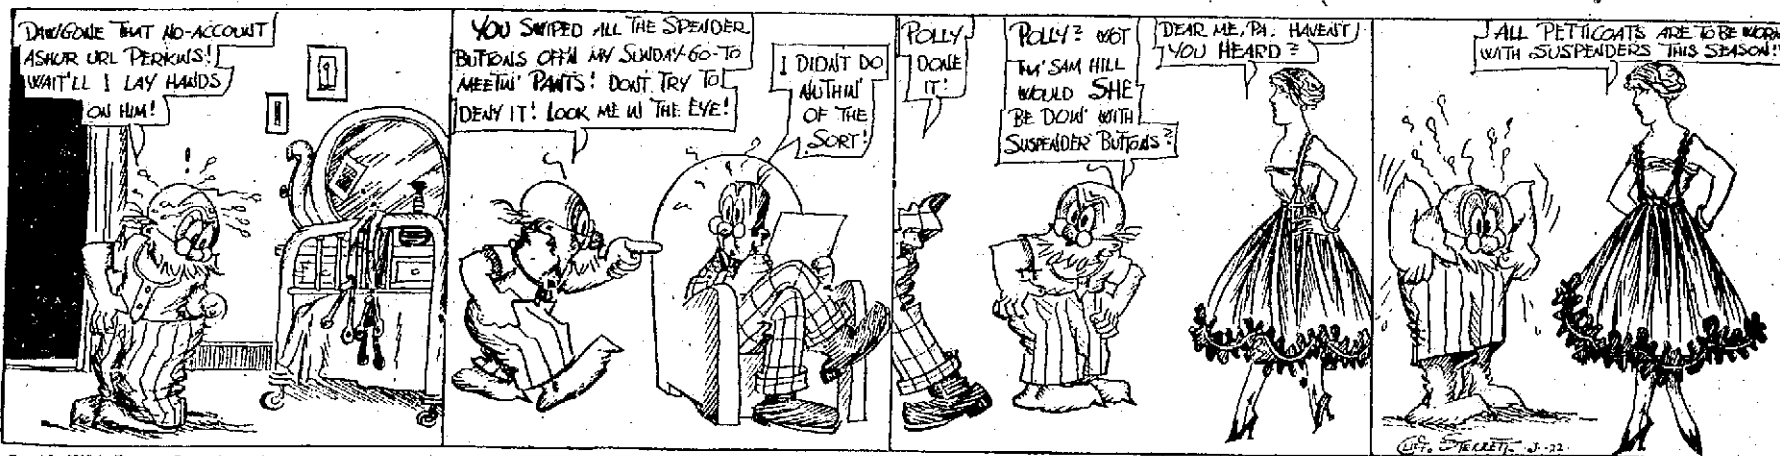

A Fair Exchange

Courtesy Returned
Gallant Passenger—Won't you take my seat, madam?
Embarrassed Beneficiary—Oh, I thank you so much. I'll take the seat with pleasure, but I don't want you to stand up.—Argosy

GERMAN U-B O A T REACHES SPAIN

Madrid, (Via Paris)—June 22.—A German submarine arrived today at Cartagena. The officers disembarked and left for Madrid with a confidential letter for King Alfonso. The section of the press which favors the German side in the war publishes articles to-day extolling the German sailors for their naval exploits. The submarine came from Pola, the Austrian naval base.

Madrid, (Via Paris)—June 22.—The arrival of the German submarine U-35 at Cartagena was officially confirmed. The submarine is anchored alongside the Spanish cruiser Cataluna. The secretary of the German embassy at Madrid has left for Cartagena to receive an autograph letter from the German emperor to King Alfonso supposed to be thanks for a reception given to Germans from Kamerun.

Fifteen Local Organizations Will Join In Memorial Parade

Final arrangements were made for the Union Memorial which is to be observed Sunday by fifteen local fraternal organizations, at a special meeting of the committee, Wednesday evening. Several thousand members of the organizations are expected to be in the line of march when the parade moves toward Greenlawn cemetery Sunday afternoon, where the memory of the dead will be honored. Governor Frank B. Willis, Columbus, will arrive in this city Sunday noon and will deliver the memorial address.

Grand Marshall O. H. Lewis has made the following report on the parade:

Members of the Union Memorial will take notice that the parade will start at one-thirty o'clock Sunday afternoon. All lodges who are to participate will meet at Second and Market streets at one o'clock. The line of march is as follows:

First Division
Will form on Market street, north of and facing Second street. A cordon of City Police.

Second Division
Will form on Market street, north of Second street and west of the esplanade, facing Second street.

Portsmouth Band
Knights of the Maccabees, Uniformed Rank and members, Millard Moore as aide.

Ladies of the Maccabees, Uniformed rank and members, with Mrs. Marie Yarnell as aide.

Fraternal Order of Eagles, with Walter Schuler as aide.

Third Division
Will form on Second street, west of Market street, and facing east. River City band.

Troops of Ben Hur, Uniformed Rank and members, with Clarence Bell as aide.

Woodmen of the World, Portsmouth and South Portsmouth camps.

Uniformed ranks and members, with George W. Clifford and W. H. Rollins as aides.

Woodmen Circle, Mrs. Nora Noel as aide.

Governor Frank B. Willis and staff, in automobiles.

The line of march will be east on Second street to Chillicothe street, north on Chillicothe street to Gallia street, east on Gallia street to Officers' street, and north on Officers' street to the entrance of Greenlawn cemetery. The Grand Marshall will call a halt at the entrance and the companies will open ranks for the speaker and the staff to march through. They will march around Soldiers' Circle, thence to the Lincoln street entrance and then back to the office building, where the program will be held.

Rev. G. E. Chandler, pastor of the Bigelow Methodist church, will deliver the invocation and Rev. John W. Dillon will say benediction.

The porch of the office building, Greenlawn cemetery, will be decorated with bunting and flowers, and a huge arch of flowers will be constructed over the entrance way.

Governor Willis and party will be met at the train by Roy McElhenny, George Enrick and Joseph Diener.

Those attending the meeting Wednesday night were: J. P. Hoerl, Eagles; C. F. Lochbaum, Juniors; Millard Moore, Maccabees; George Schaffer, Juniors; S. L. Edgington, Woodmen; C. B. Groninger, Juniors; W. C. Giles, Juniors; H. Riddle, Juniors; J. H. Coldiron, D. of A.; Warren Riddleberger, Woodmen; Capt. Leslie Janetzky, Woodmen; Irwin Bowser, Juniors; Fritz Springer, Woodmen; O. H. Lewis, Woodmen; George Schroeder, Ows; Elmer Harris, Maccabees; Marie Yarnell, Maccabees; Bertha Harris, Maccabees; Nora Noel, Woodmen; Ella Cook, Woodmen; Eva Stevenson, Woodmen; Joe Diener, Woodmen; and George Enrick, Ben Hur.

40 AMERICANS

General Felix Gomez, the slain Carranza leader, had been aware of the approach of the Americans for twelve hours and had sent a number of couriers to them warning them to return to their encampment.

Gomez Set Trap For Americans

When they persisted in their advance, he said, a pitfall several hundred feet in length was dug directly in the trail over which the cavalrymen must ride. This was cleverly concealed with brush. As the Americans came through the sand dunes toward the entrenchments, General Gomez lay concealed some hundred yards away in the mesquite. The horses of the American vanguard plunged into the pitfall unseating their riders and injuring a number of them.

Then, the Mexican asserted, the Carranza forces lying in ambush, raked the American ranks with a machine gun. The heavy fire forced the Americans to withdraw to reorganize their line and the Mexicans captured seventeen soldiers who had been thrown into the pit.

He asserted that it was then that General Gomez went forward under a flag of truce, and that before the proposed parley had begun an irresponsible soldier again started the machine gun fire.

Mexican Leader Is Killed

A small detachment of cavalrymen charged toward General Gomez and his party, who were in the center of a field directly between the two commands, their pistol fire killing the Mexican leader. According to the story both commands withdrew. The Mexican was unable to estimate the Mexican dead but asserted that the American dead numbered forty, his statement agreeing with the Mexican official reports that the American dead numbered forty.

Will Rescue The Captive Americans

It was not considered unlikely that General Pershing already has taken steps looking toward the reinforcement of the cavalry command engaged and to a swift punitive action. It was also expected that he would take such steps as are necessary to rescue the captive Americans, who now are on their way to Chihuahua City to be held subject to the orders of General Trevino, commanding General Carranza's army of the north.

Reports of the evacuation of towns held by Carranza garrisons in this territory, occupied by the expeditionary command, continued today and it was thought that General Trevino has ordered the redistribution of the troops composing the force which has been surrounding General Pershing's forces for some weeks to effect a re-alignment which the American commander began yesterday.

Throughout the night a steady stream of wagons carrying the household goods of citizens of the town poured out along the roads leading to the south. Whether the civilians had been warned by the military authorities to leave the town could not be learned. Army officers asserted today that the Mexican traders have long realized that in the event of hostilities with the United States they could not hope to hold Juarez against the Americans and have planned to withdraw to a more strategic point.

G. O. P. WILL CLOSE CONVENTION TODAY AFTER ADOPTING A STATE PLATFORM

Columbus, June 22.—With the adoption of the state platform prepared by the resolutions committee and the selection of two presidential electors at large the delegates to the Republican state convention were expected to conclude their two day convention today.

The platform as prepared by the resolutions committee pledges support to the national Republican platform and to the national candidates of the party, Charles E. Hughes and Charles W. Fairbanks.

Indorsement is also given to the administration of Governor Willis and the declaration is made that "the Republicans of Ohio note with just pride the influence which Warren G. Harding, elected by them two years ago to the senate of the United States, has already achieved in that body and the eminence he has attained in the national councils of our party."

The platform recites a list of the more important acts passed by the last legislature. It then goes into detail reciting the economics which different state departments are said to have effected. A system by which citizens necessarily absent at election time may vote is proposed.

Legislation permitting each municipality to determine its tax limitation for the purpose of earning for the interest and sinking fund charges for existing municipal indebtedness is proposed in another plank.

Other planks propose legislation to bring about peaceful settlements of labor disputes and a short session of the legislature, and the continuation of "the practice of every economy consistent with efficiency."

The resolutions committee met early last evening and completed its draft of the platform shortly before last midnight.

Will You Give A Dollar To Help Give Kids Good Time?

The youngsters of the city are going to "come into their own" in the way of a special playground in York Place, if the plans of a body of enthusiastic women are carried out, and who ever heard of a band of enthusiastic women failing to accomplish any object of this kind when they had "set their hearts on it?"

The boys and girls who enjoyed the good times in York Place in years gone by have found it difficult to understand why the grounds were not kept open. Many of them have since had no place to play except in the street. They want their play grounds restored.

Recognizing these facts, a committee representing women of the city has been appointed, consisting of Mesdames C. W. Rowe, Freeman W. Chase and Fred Baker, and they, after considerable deliberation, have decided upon a unique plan for raising the money to restore the play grounds.

They have listed a number of Portsmouth people for one dollar each, and beginning next Tuesday will send out a squad of Boy Scouts to collect the dollars.

It is thought that every one on the list will be willing to give as much as a dollar to help insure a pleasant summer for many boys and girls. If anyone wishes to give more than a dollar it will be thankfully accepted, but a dollar is all that will be asked.

The collectors will be in Boy Scout uniforms and it is hoped everyone will have a dollar ready when the Scout calls. This will facilitate the work and insure the collection of the money in a short time.

Mrs. Rowe, who is chairman of the committee, will open headquarters at the Boy Scout rooms, 305 Masonic Temple. Her telephone number will be 1058-1. If you are missed next week, call her up and a Scout will call for your dollar.

The Times will print the list of "Dollar Men and Women."

Meet Me At Nye's Fountain, 121f

by Harriet Beecher Stowe. A famous cast with wonderful photography. Featuring are Little Mary Eling as Little Eva and Irving Cummings as Geo. Harris. Mary Eling is known as the Thelma kid in moving pictures and as Little Eva she stars. The pictures show the beginning of the story which is rarely shown in the stage productions. Everybody knows the story and there is no use to repeat it here. Come early if you want a good seat. Everybody is coming. Shows start at 11 o'clock each morning and run continuously. Price 10 cents.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR PATRIOTIC TO ENLIST

The Portsmouth National Guard recruiting station will be opened on the Gallia street esplanade Friday morning, according to an announcement made by Lieutenant Joseph Morehow, Company K, Seventh Regiment, Thursday. The station will be in charge of Sergeants Clifford B. Anderson and Theron B. Matthews. Orders have been received to recruit the local company to full war strength. Permanent enlistments up to sixty-five and provisional enlistments up to one hundred and forty-one will be received by the officers of Company K.

There is much speculation as to who will be the first to recruit in the face of a crisis with Mexico, either provisional or permanent. The officers are anxious that the Portsmouth company make a good showing while the wave of mobilization and recruiting that is sweeping over the state, to demonstrate to the state that citizens in Portsmouth are just as patriotic as those in any other section.

Companies in the smaller cities of the state are reporting several recruits a day.

One of the government tents used by the citizens of Otway after the conflagration will be secured by Company K and will be erected on the Gallia street esplanade and used as a recruiting station.

The Ohio river was 23.8 ft. and falling here Thursday morning. Friday's packet departures: Greenlawn down for Cincinnati at 5 a. m.; Mildred Ransom for Rome at 2 p. m.; Greenwood up for Charleston at 2 p. m.; Greyhound for Huntington at 3 p. m.

SOCIETY

Section One of the First Baptist Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Cunningham, 1917 Eighteenth street. Gerald Riddle will be present to give a demonstration of aluminum ware. All ladies are invited to be present.

Ivory Tickling Contest To Be Staged In Dayton

Claude L. Thompson, well-known piano player of this city, is to try for the world's championship in endurance piano playing. He is in Dayton, O., at present and is to play at the World theatre, of which Albert Espy is manager. Mr. Thompson will begin his contest on Monday, July 10th. The World's Champion, James M. Bradbury, of St. Louis, is now in Dayton and has a contract to play at a piano store there. He will endeavor to break his record of 65 hours and 7 minutes.

Thompson will be remembered as the young man who played a piano forty-four and a half hours in this city in August, 1912, when he won from Leroy Bittner. He holds the Ohio State record. Thompson has not decided upon his managers, but one of them will be Harry Foster, Jr., of this city.

VIGOROUS EFFORTS ARE BEING MADE TO RECRUIT MILITIA TO FULL WAR STRENGTH

Columbus, O., June 22.—Vigorous efforts were being made throughout Ohio today to recruit the national guard to its maximum war strength. The different units are far short and recruiting is not progressing as rapidly as militia officers would like.

The attack on American troops at Carrizal yesterday, combined with Governor Willis' call for volunteers, was expected to stimulate recruiting today and commanders hoped that before night they could report full companies.

A general movement among employers was started today to encourage employees to enlist. Letters sent out by the Ohio Manufacturers' Association urged that the employees be granted restoration to their present positions, and, if possible, full or at least part pay during the period of state or federal service.

The local chamber of commerce arranged a meeting to be held here tonight, at which several speakers are expected to set forth the necessity and importance of raising the national guard to its maximum war strength. Gov. Willis and Adjutant General Hough are expected to address the meeting. Work on the camp northwest of this city is still being pushed and the camp will be complete before the guardsmen are ordered to entrain.

FUNSTON CONFIRMS REPORT OF FIGHT

Washington, June 22.—General Funston reported late last night that he had received official confirmation of a clash between Carranza and American troops early yesterday, near Carrizal, Mexico. He had no details of the incident, except those provided by Mexican officials at Juarez.

General Funston transmitted to the war department the following report from General Bell at El Paso:

"There was a clash this morning at Carrizal, near Villa Ahumada between Carranza and American troops, in which General Gomez and other Mexicans were killed, the number unknown. Number of Americans killed or wounded unknown."

"General Gomez sent a captain with an order to the American commander to go back, but the American commander said he was with Hannibal, Mo., in the morning to Villa Ahumada, and Ely League and was sent here to open fire on the Mexican camp."

SIMS JOINS LOCALS

Pitcher Clarence Sims rolled in at midnight last night and joined the Champs. He says he is in good shape and is ready any time to go to the mound. Sims was with Hannibal, Mo., in the morning to Villa Ahumada, and Ely League and was sent here to open fire on the Mexican camp."

The Movies

MARGERY WILSON, IN NEW TRIANGLE PLAY, "THE PRIMAL LURE."

It will be seen at the Columbia Theatre today.

"The Primal Lure" is an absorbing drama of life in the great Canadian Northwest. It recites the stirring romance of Angus McConnell, a young Scotch-Canadian factor, and Lois Le Moyne, daughter of a French settler at the post. It is replete with thrilling encounters with the Blackfoot Indians, and teems with a love interest rivaled in its appeal only by the picturesque beauty of the story's background.

Hart has the role of McConnell and he has invested it, it is declared, with rare power. While the part is unlike that of "Blaze" Tracy in "Hell's Hinges," or Steve Denton in "The Argon," it has afforded the noted actor with the same opportunities for forceful characterization.

A small, though strong, cast appears in support of Hart. It includes Morzery Wilson as Lois Le Moyne and Robert McKim as Richard Sylvester, the villain of the story. The production was directed by Hart under the close supervision of "The Love Riot," today's Keystone comedy featuring Charlie Murray, is just as the title implies, a regular "Love Riot" from start to finish.
